WHAT'S GOING ON AROUND TOWN

By BILL KATZ

Although the sale of B.B. guns is now forbidden in Daly City, the younger set evidently hasn't heard anything of the law. Police report this week that several residents have been having trouble with the small fry who use house windows as targets for the B. B. shot.

It seems to us that the city could do something about setting up a target range where the boys could fire their guns in safety. This also might be a worthy project for some sporting club here in Daly City.

Memorial Day means many things to many people, but on the whole we fear its real significance is lost to most. Supposedly the day is set aside to remind the country of the men who died in two World Wars. Actually, these war dead, but to their immediate families, are as remote as the millions who die each year in China from lack of rice. This may be a cruel conclusion, but it seems valid. Why else, then, would the great majority be talking with excitement of still another, a third, World War, and almost hope for self destruction? We suppose the Dr. Snake Pits, and other explorers of the mind, could explain this phenomena in scientific terms, but we've boiled it down to one thing . . . ignorance. Fortunately, or unfortunately, the majority of people in this country have no idea what war really means. To date all they know are the brass bands, the army camps, the excited rhetoric of politicians . . . and the war dead on Memorial Day.

We believe that if the people would really stop to consider those war dead this Tuesday, and the manner in which they died, the frequent talk of another war might subside somewhat. Remember, despite the heroic phrases, none of those men died because they wanted to die . . . they stopped a bullet or a piece of shrapnel with the love of life pounding through their veins. They were victims to a world ignorant of what war means. Let this not happen again.

While many parents showed an interest in reorganizing the Daly City Boys club, only a few actually have participated in the work connected with getting the 400 boys back into their Hillside boulevard clubhouse. We are happy to report, however, that those who have dug in and cleaned up the building are showing excellent progress, and the Boys Club may be open by summer. Why not give them a helping hand, and at the same time assist your own young boy. Bill Finney, at DE 3-6320 will be glad to accept your help, and explain the situation.

Is there such a thing as a white orchid, and how much is one that is almost white worth? Judge Rudolph Rapsey had that one to answer in the First Township court last week. Florist John Newton, Colma, several weeks ago sent a "white" orchid to Dudley Frey. Frey refused to pay for the flower as he said it was fuchsia colored. No, said Newton, the fuchsia is as close as nature gets in producing a white orchid. When the litigants couldn't get together on a settlement out of court, Judge Rapsey ruled that at least Frey would have to pay for the cost of the orchid, ruling out any profit for Newton. Still muttering something about "fuchsia not being white," the defendant paid Newton $19.50.

CALLAN, McGEEIN VICTORS FRIDAY IN SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS

Michael (Carter) Callan was returned to his position as trustee of the Jefferson elementary school district Friday, while Mrs. Mildred McGeein was elected trustee for the Jefferson high school district.

D. C. Gensel, Callan's opponent, received 336 votes to Callan's 763 majority, Pansy Jewett, county school superintendent, said.

A closer race was chalked up in the high school election with Mrs. McGeein defeating Claude E. Hanrahan by 103 votes. Mrs. McGeein received 1,022 votes to Hanrahan's 919.

Meanwhile, in Bayshore David G. Barry J. was victor, defeating his opponent Mrs. Berta Hughes by only four votes. Barry received 450 votes to Mrs. Hughes' 446.

Two Injured In Car Wreck

Two persons suffered slight injuries in an automobile wreck at Mission and E. Cavour at 4:35 p.m. Tuesday, police report today.

Injured were: James Peterson, 20, 521 Niantic and Antonio Bologna, 64, San Francisco. Both sustained slight cuts and abrasions and were treated by their own doctors, police said.

Bologna was riding in a car driven by James Bologna, 27, while Peterson was in the machine driven by Louis F. Roth Jr., 23, 250 Crocker. The two cars collided at the intersection.

Pending further investigation police have not issued any citations.

No Cleaning Price Cut Seen Here

No cut in cleaning prices is foreseen in the near future for Daly City or San Mateo county, the Cooperative Cleaners and Dyers association said today.

Some San Francisco dry cleaners have cut prices as low as 79 cents for cleaning and pressing a plain garment.

The San Francisco slash came after a Los Angeles judge threw out price levels set by the state board of dry cleaners.

Prices in Daly City and the Peninsula range from $1.50 to a minimum of $1.11 for cleaning a garment.

Coupled with the clash in prices, the AFL Cleaners and Dyers Union is seeking about a 15 cents an hour increase on the Peninsula and in San Francisco.

Negotiations are now underway for a new contract.

SM County Marks Memorial Day At San Bruno

While Memorial Day ceremonies will be held in Colma next Tuesday, there also will be San Mateo county services in San Bruno.

Annual memorial services at Golden Gate National cemetery will get under way at 11 a.m., and are scheduled for completion by noon. This year's ceremonies are under the direction of the American Legion, and will be participated in by veteran groups throughout the county.

Joseph Madden of San Bruno is chairman of the event. T. Louis Chess, past area commander of the Legion, will serve as master of ceremonies and will introduce the speaker of the day, Representative Richard Nixon.

At noon taps will sound as the flag is raised from half to full staff.

Young Girl Hit By Automobile

Recovering today from injuries suffered when she was struck by a car last Saturday is 4-year-old Joan A. Doyle.

The young girl was crossing the intersection of Bismark and Abbot when hit by a machine driven by John C. Vaughn Jr., 20, 6275 Mission, police report.

Rushed to Junipero Serra hospital, Joan was treated for a fractured left leg, a mild concussion and abrasions, hospital authorities said. Her condition was reported as "good" today.

According to police, the Daly City truck driver was coming west on Bismark when he struck the girl. Vaughn was cited for hitting a pedestrian while crossing a street.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doyle, 160 Abbot street.

VIKINGS CLASH TODAY

Indians Take One Game In Playoff; Chance For First Win In 13 Years

By MILTON TROMBORG

Having already scalped the Palo Alto Vikings Tuesday, Jeff's nine Indians go out on the home field Friday for a second scalp and the first PAL crown in 13 years.

Game time is set at 3:15 p.m. at the Jefferson high school baseball diamond.

In the first game of a three game playoff Tuesday, the Indians neatly carved up the Vikings by a 4 to 1 score.

After a hectic game at the beginning of the year, in which Palo Alto won 2-1, the Indians came back to prove that they were out to win the crown no matter who they faced.

The game was anything but interesting. Ed Cereghino started and finished on the mound, giving up 8 blows, striking out 12, walking none.

Don Lunghi and Harold Mosman lead the Indians hitting attack with 2 hits apiece. Ed Cereghino had a god day at the plate, getting 1 for 3, driving in 2 of the 4 Jeff runs.

So today is the day for Coach South. His one dream, a baseball championship may come true today. Henry Morgan will start on the mound for the Indians and if he is needed, Ed Cereghino will also see action.

Council Calls For Bids To Clear Alp Building Site

Taking the last step in clearing of land for the new War Memorial building, the city council Monday night called for bids to remove buildings now on the property.

This was the principal business of the meeting, other than the discussion of the Broadmoor-Westlake connecting street. (See Colma page for story on this route.)

Bids to remove a large building and several smaller structures at Alps and Mission must be submitted to the city council by June 12.

Once the land is cleared work is expected to start on the $295,000 War Memorial building.

Also, a letter was read from the Jefferson elementary school district requesting three sites for schools in the Westlake-Broadmoor area. The council took the request under advisement.

Specifically, the district requested five acres for the upper Garden Village school, seven acres for a Westlake school near the Olympic club, and another 10 acres in Westlake between Broadmoor and Highway No. 1.

The three schools are part of an overall plan for six new buildings tentatively scheduled for construction in 1951.

The council also opened bids for a water system for the Concordia improvement district. The bids were referred to the city engineer for study.

A letter from residents on Niantic avenue, objecting to being on a main water line was not read, but referred for further study.

As the meeting closed, two residents of Concordia arose and asked that the city do something about the garbage service in their area. They claim that while the streets are being improved, no garbage has been removed.

Mayor Paul Green said he would look into the situation, and attempt to find a solution to their problem.

Friend Leads D. C. Lad To Trouble

A 16-year-old Daly City boy, whose mother claims he was led astray by a friend, is being held by San Francisco police today on a car theft charge.

The Jefferson high school student disappeared from here early Monday morning. An all point police bulletin was sent out for the boy, and he and his friend were picked up in Gold Beach, Oregon, police report.

When Oregon police found the cads, they had a 1950 automobile that had been stolen from the Seacliff district Monday.

The 17-year-old friend of the Daly City boy was visiting relatives here. He is from New York city, police report.

County Budget Cut $21,646

Whacking $21,646 from the San Mateo county $12,183,265 budget for the next fiscal year, the board of supervisors this week noted that for the first time in its history more than 1,000 employes are on county rolls.

When the board meets this Friday to approve the new salary ordinance for 1,014 employees, they will be on the last lap of the 1950-51 budget preparation. Public hearings will begin June 13 on the financial program.

Most of the trimming came when it was found that bonds could be let at a lower interest rate than first expected. Hence, there was no actual saving in the departments; in fact, some department budgets are higher than the first request.

Thieves Get $500 Cash, Goods From School St. Store

Burglars, with an eye for cash and the value of groceries, took $500 in money and goods from the School Street Grocery, 82 School, Wednesday night, police report today.

When store owner Lewis Bozza opened the store early Thursday morning he found the unidentified thugs had taken $130 from the cash register, $200 worth of cigarettes, 20 pounds of butter, 100 pounds of sugar and 10 cases of beer.

The money and the goods were carried out of the store, either through the back or front door, in large No. 20 bags, police report.

Entry was gained to the store through the barred back window. The burglars broke the glass in the window and then squeezed through the bars. Police do not know how many men were involved in the theft.

The time of the burglary is placed at about 11:30 p.m. Police say that a neighbor, John Giannini, heard someone moving behind the store about that time. He told his wife of the noise, but she dismissed it as the activity of cats or dogs, police said.

Bozza reports that the $200 worth of cigarettes had been ordered only the day before.

Gov. Warren To Visit SM County Thursday

Governor Earl Warren will be in San Mateo county to talk to the residents June 1, his headquarters announced today.

No itinerary has been figured out as yet, although it is expected that the Governor will visit either Daly City or South San Francisco.

At noon next Thursday he will be given a luncheon in San Mateo.

Further information on the tour may be obtained by calling FIreside 5-9181.

Commissioners Position May Mean Cancellation Of Plans For School

City Adm. Officer Choice Narrows

Narrowing the field of possible candidates for the city administrators job to less than 12, the city council this week promised a choice soon.

Within the next few weeks, the acceptable applicants for the job will be interviewed by the council. It is expected that from these interviews will come the man who will act as a coordinator of city business, for a salary expected to be from $400 to $600 a month.

The man will be named before July 1, the council indicated.

However, to avoid possible embarrassment to any of the candidates, the council does not feel it should release any names at this time, Mayor Paul Green said.

Earlier the mayor indicated none of the applicants were from Daly City, although there were some from San Mateo county.

The decision to hire a city administrator came early this year. The council feels that Daly City has grown too big for administration by only a part time council, and an administrator is needed to cope with the many new problems arising with the city's growth.

Terming the delay of the Westlake-Broadmoor connecting street "legislation by hysteria," Charles Becker Monday night called for assistance from Daly City.

The representative of the Westlake Improvement Association made this appeal in a short talk before the city council. His speech was prompted by the "do nothing" attitude of the county planning commission which met last Friday.

Although it had been generally expected that the commissioners would approve the route 300 feet west of White street, their only action Friday was to reiterate that they will not give up White until a connecting street has been approved.

A. J. Bodien, Daly City representative on the board, said today that the commissioners were only in favor of the route which cut close to the Garden Village school. This street was turned down by the state as unsafe for school children.

Today the Jefferson elementary school district faces the dillema of not being able to go ahead with the upper Garden Village school because White street cuts through the proposed site; and neither are they able to compromise with the

Anderson Visits Daly City May 31

Congressman Jack Z. Anderson, congressional representative from this district, will spend a day in Daly City next Wednesday, May 30.

Anderson will be at the city hall at 2 p.m. at which time he will give a brief speech concerning his past and future actions as congressman.

From city hall he will move out into the various districts of Daly City where he will meet and talk with the voters.

At 3 p.m. he will be present at Marchbanks park. Then, at 4 p.m., he will be in Colma. (The place of his Colma talk was not available at publication time.)

That evening, at 8 o'clock, Anderson will be at the Daly City Boys Club headquarters, 1 Hillside boulevard.

He will conclude the day with a stop at 838 Bellevue.

Anyone interested in meeting and talking with Anderson is invited to see him at any of the aforesaid mentioned places.

Wednesday morning Anderson will be in South San Francisco at 10:30 o'clock. His many friends have a luncheon scheduled in his honor at noon at Oliver's. Tickets may be obtained from Herb Schaur at South City Lumber company.

Five-day Week Decision Pending

A decision on whether or no city employes will go on a five day week will be forthcoming within the next few weeks, Mayor Paul Green announced today.

The five day week must be considered with the 1950-51 budget that is to be submitted for the council's approval before July 1. However, it is expected that the shorter work week will not effect the budget to any great degree.

Earlier, city employes requested that they operate on the five day schedule. Presently, except for the police department which works six days a week, city employes work 5½ days.

The matter of inaugurating a 40 hour week was first discussed at a meeting of the North Cities Council, an organization comprised of officials of Daly City, Colma, South San Francisco, San Bruno and Millbrae.

Spastic School Opens March 1, 1950, At S. M.

The El Portal school for cerebral palsied children in San Mateo will open about March 1, 1950, Pansy Jewett Abbot, county school superintendent, anounced this week.

The announcement followed the allocation by the state of matching funds totaling $52,400. Estimated total cost of the building will be $108,310, of which slightly more than half will be financed by county school funds.

At present, handicapped children attend the El Portal school in the carriage house of the Mills estate.

When the new building is completed there will be three classrooms, a speech room, and occupational therapy room, a physical therapy room, dining room and kitchen. It will handle about 45 students.

HILLTOP MARKET CONTINUES GRAND OPENING BARGAINS

With the opening of the streamlined, completely new Hilltop Market, 6315 Mission, last week, Daly City recorded the management a wonderful reception. Cognizant of the fine welcome, the management again this week is offering customers some of the finest food bargains on the entire Peninsula. Drop around and see for yourself.

Letter to the Editor

A Citizen Endorses Thomas Bocci Jr.

Dear DALY-Citizens:

All around and up and down the "woman's gossip trail" I have been hearing the name "TOM BOCCI." Bzz-bzzz-bzzz "Did you hear what he said about spanking children?!!" and "Why, he isn't even dry behind the ears yet—and running for Justice of the Peace!"

That is what I heard—and believed—until after a long and searching interview with Mr. Bocci on the subject in question. Namely, "That the school authorities should have the authority to apply the rod where it is reasonably necessary."

Here are my present conclusions and careful considerations.

Conclusion number 1. That these comments are minor explosions deliberately set off by Mr. Bocci himself; A Bocci brand of T.N.T. dropped into audiences who refused to comment or ask questions on "Juvenile Delinquency"—until he made them explode about spanking!

How did he do it? He gave a wicked little grin and said, "I have a 'controversial question' to put to you," and he proceeded to take the stand for spanking.

A controversial question is one in dispute—not settled—and Mr. Bocci picked a "lulu"—but it certainly hammered home to us the full meaning of his previous fine talk on "juvenile delinquency!" He wanted to stir up up and he did. He made us fighting mad, but we knew why we were angry and eager to do something about it. He made us think about the problems of child welfare and discipline instead of just listening to a talk about them!

Before Bocci's bomb blew up the meeting—we were all feeling polite and ready to dish out polite applause. But, a judge does not deal with "polite applause"—does not want it! The unpleasant facts of life and living are on constant parade before him and he needs the help of every citizen to straighten out tangles before they get to him. He needs people to get angry enough to do something about the evils he sees every day!

Conclusion number 2: Tom Bocci is the man for such a job as justice of the peace or judge. He may not be dry behind the ears as yet, but his brainwork is good enough for me and I hope for you, too!

His heart must be pretty big to accomodate not only his own family, but all those Boy's Club boys, too.

His constitution must be strong because he came through as Chairman of the South City Red Cross drive—and that is hard work!

"Get mad," says Bocci. "Get out and do things—that is what makes our democracy work." And I say a man like that deserves the chance to work for and with us after those June 6 elections. How about it?

Signed:
JANE KEITH

Hall Explains Office Function

Henry C. Hall, present assistant county school superintendent and a candidate for the county school superintendents position at the June 6 election, pointed out this week that the main function of the superintendent's office is to aid local school districts in seeing that all their business is conducted in accordance with the educational code of the State of California.

Hall said that local residents should not confuse the county school superintendent's office and that of district boards of trustees who are the direct administrators of elementary schools and high schools.

"The school trustees in each area, who are elected by the voters," Hall said, "are the ones who make the decisions concerning local school operation. They hire the teachers, set the salaries, purchase instructional materials, select and buy school sites, purchase buses and decide who should ride in them, build their own buildings and make up their own yearly budget."

commissioners.

Should the district have to find another site, which undoubtedly would be in Westlake, this would mean additional cost for the land, plus the loss of 8,000 to 10,000 in plans for the upper Garden Village school, James Snell, district superintendent, said today.

Still another facet of the problem is the protest by some 900 Broadmoor residents against any street at all cutting through school property. Several of these women were present at the commission meeting Friday, and restated their views that a street near school property is dangerous.

All of this appears to boil down to three main points:

1. The planning commission is blocking the construction of an upper Garden Village school until such time as a connecting street, preferably the one rejected by the state, is approved.

2. The Jefferson elementary school district is not in favor of a road through school property, but as they must have White street they have agreed to the alternate route 300 feet west of White. This route county engineers have termed as not "feasible."

3. Residents of Broadmoor are opposed to any route through school property, and will continue to make themselves heard at the commissioners meeting.

It became evident today that someone would have to "give," or the upper Garden Village school will not be built.

Becker, in his speech to the council, called on the "little women" of Broadmoor to stop "screaming" that they don't want a road, and face facts. He said a connecting street is necessary, as the children in Westlake go to the Garden Village school, and presently they must make the trip via Junipero Serra highway.

"This is much more dangerous than having a street from Westlake to Broadmoor," Becker asserted. "And as we will not have schools in Westlake for some time to come, such a connecting route is imperative for the safety of our children."

He then called on the city council to get together with the school board and the planning commission to work out a possible compromise. The compromise, he indicated, must be the street 300 feet west of White.

"The commissioners object because they say the cost would be too high to move two houses on 87th," Becker said. "Why not work out a plan whereby the street would turn off behind the homes, and thus do away with the necessity of moving them?"

Meanwhile, a few minutes earlier, the city took a stand on the proposed route by passing a resolution asking the commissioners for a street between Westlake and Broadmoor. The council further stated that they believed the best route was the "red" plan, that is, the street 300 feet west of White.

Mayor Paul Green said the council would be represented at the next regular school board meeting this Thursday night.

"We will recommend that the board go on record in favor of the 'red' plan," Mayor Green said. "Meanwhile, we shall try to work out some compromise."

Also, Becker said he would bring up the problem at the next meeting of the Westlake Improvement Association, June 5.

However, the next meeting of the planning commission is not until June 16. And until such time as the commission meets, no further action can be taken on the route.

Group Fights Charter Change

Popular sentiment continued to rise this week against Proposition A on the June 6 primary election ballot as the Citizens Committee for Better County Government laid bare the threat of "county dictatorship" contained in the proposition.

The Committee has opened offices in Redwood City and Burlingame and is waging a vigorous campaign to defeat the measure. John D. Bromfield, San Mateo civic leader, is chairman, and Perry A. Bygdnes, former Burlingame banker, is treasurer.

In 1948, the committee successfully sponsored a charter amendment providing for appointment of a county manager to take charge of the county's business affairs on Jan. 3, 1951. The civil service commission is now scouring the county for candidates for the post.

"Proposition A would undo this constructive action of San Mateo county voters two years ago," said Bygones today. "Instead of replacing the present County Executive with an efficient County Manager, skilled in stretching the tax dollar as the 1948 Amendment provides, the County Executive would be continued in office and his powers increased.

City Issues Total $353,952 Bldg. Permits

Building permits totaling $353,952 were issued this week by the city to Henry Doelger and William Lagomarsino respectively.

The largest permits went to Doelger for 33 homes in the Westlake tract. This permit totaled $275,352.

Lagomarsino was issued a permit for 18 homes, valued at a total of $78,600 in the Garden Valley tract.

Congressman Nixon States Platform

Congressman Richard M. Nixon, candidate for United States senate, boldly set down his program during his tour in Northern California this week as follows:

CENTRAL VALLEY PROJECT: "It is essential that the extent of government action in the development of our water and power resources be limited to the necessary assistance which cannot be provided at the state or local level. But once these projects are constructed, control of their operation should be left to the people on the scene who know their local problems best, and not with the bureaucrats in Washington."

DOMESTIC TREND: "People are becoming increasingly concerned over the spendthrift and socialistic trend of their national government in Washington. This is probably the greatest issue of the campaign. It goes completely beyond partisan politics, because it involves the survival of the American system of government, under which we have enjoyed our great success and progress in the past, and which will be responsible for our success and progress in the future.

"Deficit spending," Nixon continued, "and the new socialistic programs form the cornerstone of the product the President of the United States is now trying to sell in his travels around the country."

VETERANS AFFAIRS: "I spent one afternoon at the Birmingham Veterans Hospital in San Fernando valley. I talked with some of the really great heroes of the last war: men who are completely paralyzed, or partially paralyzed, who will be the victims for the remainder of their lives of the destructive power of modern warfare.

"May of them," Nixon went on, "had invested in homes near the hospital, and had wired the President that it should not be abandoned. An order was issued from Washington closing the hospital, and requiring the patients to move to another area. When I see such practices of so-called economy as this, causing untold hardship to injured war veterans, to whom every person in this country owes a debt that can never be repaid, I say it is high time that we placed men in Washington, in positions of power, who will not attempt to practice economy at the expense of wounded veterans, but who will do so by eliminating some of the jobs of bureaucrats, who are still flooding Washington as they were during the wartime peak."

Greyhound Wants Fare Increases

Calling for an increase in bus fares from 50 to 75 per cent, Pacific Greyhound this week asserted it has an annual loss of $600,000 in commute business.

Greyhound's new application for intrastate hikes said it would lose $1,000,000 in the next fiscal year on its operations within California unless it got the fare boost.

The increased costs of operating the line, plus a loss in passenger traffic is the reason given for the threatened revenue loss.

Meyers Honored At Banquet

Assemblyman Charles W. Meyers was honored by some 500 residents of the 24th district at a recent banquet at the Italian-American Social club, 25 Russia avenue.

Walter Renner Sr., a Republican leader of the Mission district, was toastmaster for the affair arranged by a non-partisan "Citizens Committee" working for Meyers' re-election. Other banquet officials included Thomas A. Valerga, John P. Figone, Robert L. Woodward, Richard Valerga, Anthony S. Fiore, Matthew S. Savasta and Thomas F. Mulvihill.

Among those attending the banquet were State Senator Gerald J. O'Gara, San Francisco Assemblyman Thomas A. Maloney, William C. Berry and Edward M. Gaffney, Municipal Judge John B. Molinari and Assemblyman Meyers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Meyers. The assemblyman testified to Meyer's effective support of legislation benefitting residents of the 24th district during the youthful assemblyman's first term as a state legislator.

TB Tabulations Underway Here

A hint of important new findings respecting the incidence of tuberculosis danger for San Mateo county adults is contained today in an announcement of the County Tuberculosis and Health Association that special tabulations here are underway.

The special tabulation was in part prompted by the release of provisional figures by the state department of health which today listed tuberculosis as ranking first among communicable diseases causing deaths in California during 1949. The total number of deaths attributed to tuberculosis during the year was 2,717 with pneumonia, influenza and syphillis listed next in order among the communicable diseases.

The tabulation under direction of the county association's medical committee is expected to be complete in time for disclosure of the findings at the annual dinner meeting of the association on the night of June 5, at the Villa Chartier.

Preliminary studies show that the tabulation will be of vital local importance, a committee spokesman said. Figures under examination include a comparison of findings in the adult and schoolchildren's free x-ray clinics conducted by the association.

COLMA --- BROADMOOR GARDEN VILLAGE

Doelger Named In School Suit

Protesting the grading of property to be used for the upper Garden Village school, the Jefferson elementary school district this week filed a condemnation suit against Henry Doelger.

The suit was filed after Doelger's men began grading property north of White street, despite the protests of the school district, James Snell, superintendent, said.

No date has been set for trial on the suit. Snell reports the grading work has stopped.

The board of trustees passed their resolution to proceed with prosecution of the condemnation suit at their meeting on May 11.

The district hopes to acquire five acres north of White street, plus an additional acreage south of White.

A suit was also brought against the Ocean Shore railroad, for approximately six acres of property in Colma for the new Colma School.

Colma Bookie Pleads Guilty

John Pesce, 43, a self confessed bookie who was arrested at Colma, April 5, is awaiting sentence by Superior Court Judge Aylett R. Cotton today.

The San Francisco bookie pled guilty to a felony bookmaking charge Tuesday. Sentence was delayed on a request by Pesce for probation.

Pesce was arrested by two deputy sheriffs after they noted telephone lines leading to an old shed in back of a grading company at 52 Clarke street. When they entered the shed, officers found Pesce, three telephones and horse betting paraphenalia.

Poppy Day Sale Now In Broadmoor

Poppy Day will be observed in Broadmoor this Friday and Saturday by members of American Legion Post No. 824 and Auxiliary.

Women of the auxiliary will sell the Buddy Poppies to everyone in the area.

Mrs. Ray Logan is the poppy chariman for the Auxiliary. She reports that the sale of the poppies is necessary to help support the activities of disabled veterans throughout the country.

The poppies to be distributed in Broadmoor and Daly City have been made at a Veterans hospital in California, where patients have worked in their beds and in the occupational therepy shop.

The flowers are lifelike replicas of the European wild poppy which Col. John McCrae, Canadian medical officer, made into the war memorial flower of the English speaking world with his poem, "In Flanders Field."

Garden Village Residents Knock Over Street Curb

Taking action literally into their own hands, several residents of Garden Village this week knocked down a curb blocking Garden Village lane off Junipero Serra.

The curb was put up by Stoneson a few days after his men completed work on the new King's Market. Stoneson was acting under orders of the Joint Highway District, which several months ago ruled that the curb must go in.

On the other hand, about 50 per cent of the residents in Garden Village believe that the entrance is necessary for fire precaution, and as a simple means of entrance and exit to their homes, a former official of the Garden Village Property Owners reports. It was these people who made waste of the cement curb.

However, the other half of the populace are in favor of blocking the street, as they say it is used by motorists as a speedway to avoid the signals at Junipero Serra and School street.

This is a long-standing argument which opened last year when the Highway district put up the signals at School. At that time, without the benefit of an open meeting, they said the Garden lane street had to be closed.

Since their decision, the matter has come before the city council of Daly City, the Highway district and the Property Owners, but no compromise could be reached.

Whether or not the curb is returned will depend on an investigation of the matter by the Highway district. Today, May 25, Dr. Johnson of the District came to Garden Village to see what could be done. His report was made too late for publication in this week's paper.

Still, one thing is evident . . . a group of Garden Village residents are determined there will be no curb, and they are willing to use "sledge hammer" force to carry out their belief.

OVER-FILLED RADIATOR

When filling the car radiator, enough air space should be left for expansion, since water expands when heated. If the radiator is over-filled, loss of water through the over-flow pipe will result, carrying away rust inhibitor that may be in the radiator, warns the California State Automobile Association.

SHATTUCK PLEDGES LOCAL COOPERATION

"The Attorney General should cooperate with, not interfere with the work of the district attorneys, sheriffs, police and local law enforcement agencies," says Edward S. Shattuck, leading candidate for Attorney General.

Shattuck, the only veteran running for Attorney General, has had wide legal experience and has been a member of the California Bar for 23 years.

California needs an honest, capable Attorney General. Be sure to vote for Edward S. Shattuck for Attorney General.

DORMOY IN LOVING MEMORY OF PETER DORMOY, WHO PASSED AWAY DECEMBER 10TH, 1948.

A year has passed since that sad day,
When the one I loved was called away.
God took him home, it was His will,
But in my heart he liveth still.

In Memoriam

Dedicated to my beloved family on Memorial Day, 1950: My only Sister, Christine Butler, September, 1947; Her Husband, Charles (Dennis) Butler, September, 1942; My Father, Christoph Oswald, March, 1946; My Husband, Thomas Jefferson Beeson, June 1946; My idolized young Son, Thomas Jefferson Beeson Jr., January 20, 1946.

My darlings, I hope you can guide me
As I travel this world all alone.
I have health, I have friends who adore me,
But I wish you could all come back home.
I feel like the last rose of summer,
Whom the good Lord has granted a stay;
But the world has lost most of its sunshine
Since my loved ones have all gone away.

Westlake Improvement Association To Hold Open Meeting June 5

A general open meeting of the Westlake Improvement Association is to be held Monday, June 5, in the auditorium of Jefferson high school.

Time for the meeting, to which every resident of Westlake is invited, is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Dr. George Gibson, president of the association, today called on everyone interested in Westlake to attend the conclave.

"We intend to discuss questions of interest which no one can afford to miss," Dr. Gibson said.

Among the many pertinent topics to be discussed will be the proposed Westlake-Broadmoor connecting street, bus transportation, and the school problem.

Any other questions of interest to residents may be brought up at the meeting.

Following the discussion, a sports film will be shown. The flim concerns the Sierra fish and game.

Refreshments will be served after the movie.

Doelger Fights Skyline Rezoning

Operators of two riding academies on Skyline boulevard "locked horns" Friday with Henry Doelger as they petitioned the county planning commission to rezone their property to commercial uses.

Doelger opposes the rezoning. The Westlake developer told the commission he intended to build homes in the area, and did not see why a business zone should be installed on the site of the two stables.

The request for rezoning was made by R. H. Bridgeman and William J. Zapperttini, operators of the Palomar Stables and LaPlaya Stables.

At Bridgeman's request, the second hearing on the application was postponed until after the June 16 meeting of the commission.

Holy Angels Church Bazaar Scheduled For September 30

Looking forward to their fall bazaar, the congregation of Holy Angels church, Colma announced today the big event will be held September 30 to October 1.

Armando Gugielmino has been named chairman of the bazaar. He is to be assisted by George Disperati and Mrs. Padreddi, who will act as secretary.

Prizes for the big event have already been secured. The grand gift will be a 16 inch television set.

The second prize, donated by the Colma friends of Sheriff James McGrath, will be an all-expense paid trip to the Rose Bowl game.

A portable electric sewing machine has been donated to the bazaar by Henry C. Hall.

Thomas Callan Sr., has given two bicycles to the event.

Watch the Daly City Record from time to time for additional information on the bazaar.

AROUND THE VILLAGES

with Verna Duste

Ah me—'tis Spring, and once again Memory Gomez's gorgeous rhododendrons are sending out their nutmeggy fragrance to tantalize the nose—what's this? Big words?

Choosing this lovely spring weather as her natal arrival time is Dona Loy Hannan, who, weighing 5 lbs. 15½ oz. (good try, Donna!) calls the Donald Hannans Mommy and Poppy—and lives on Larchmont Drive.

You all know what a "childhood disease" is—natch, it's for children. Well, ask Ruth Brehm what shes doin' with the chickenpox(besides trying not to scratch it! Poor Ruthie, caught it from daughter Karen, I guess! It's getting so you're just nothing in the Mary-Jane-set unless you've had mumps a time or two, and measles at least!

BIRTHDAYS

Heading off the Birthday Department this week is our Patrick Patey, Broadmoor's popular Police Commissioner. Celebrating his ?? birthday on May 22nd is Pat, with the good wishes of his friends. Also in the Grownup Set is Dorothy Levitan, over on Louvaine, who celebrated her natal day on May 21.

Denise Friend's birthday party was quite a social success—held at her home on Midway Ave. 'twas, and she was two years old—May 17th. The guest list included Kathy and Kent McBain, Jackie and Judy Bell, Ronnie and Barry Woodhouse, Jimmie Townsend, Frankie and Lee Prince, Davey and Kathy Merchant, Michael McGowan, Michael and Kenny Manley, David and Danny LaVern, Billy and Lorraine Grest, and two grownup guests, Mrs. Walter Diss and Mrs. Irving.

Arlene Sutter celebrated eight years of being, with a theatre party and luncheon on May 13. Guests—Susan Damon, Susan Rollins, Judy Sutter, Eloise Zanone, Jo Ann Johns and Sandra Hazen.

Arlene's sister Judy, blew off (oops I meant "out") six candles on her cake with the help of Kathy Drotar, Mary Beth Bruner, Kathy Johns, Pamela Johnson and Sister Arlene on May 25, so I would say the Sutters have been well "birthdayed"—at least until the next birthday comes along.

Winding up our Birthday Dept. for this week is Barbara MacFarlane, who celebrates her six years on May 20th.

POPPY DAY

Bye the bye, nice people, when buying your poppies on Poppy Day, how about giving your own neighborhood veterans' groups a chance? The auxiliaries of both groups, the VFW and the Legion, will be out Friday and Saturday selling the poppies. The cause—a wonderful one, the cost—a small one, so let's all pitch in and help these worthy organizations to further the ends for which they were established, and for which the fellows and girls give a lot of their time and energy.

The corner of Sweetwood and Washington is "four-square" complete again—Therese and Stephanie Mischak are home once more, after an extended visit to Chicago. They came home to discover that Papa Steve had painted the interior of the house—nice surprise?

Now that more of you Broad Moors are reading the Record, let me remind you that this column is yours, it's news about you—all the news, your new baby, your mother-in-law's visit, yes, your gripes about the general situation, so let's have the news, all of it. Just call PL 5-1865, and ask for "Verna." I'll be expecting some news, now, so don't let me down! Selah!

Nixon's Platform, Background Given

Combine 37 years of ability, experience and courage—coupled with a profound faith and abiding conviction in our American way of life, and getting things done!—and you have a quick, thumb-nail portrait of Congressman Richard M. Nixon, the next United States Senator from California, his countless friends and admirers assert.

What's his platform? Background?

He's one of the "common people" and proud of it! Of a fairly large family, born with no silver spoon in his mouth, he comes of good old American stock.

He worked his way through college; passed his bar examinations; served with the Navy in the South Pacific for four years; has distinguished himself—two terms—in the House of Representatives. Generally credited with "breaking" the Hiss case, he is an avowed foe to all foreign "isms," even as he champions everything that is American—and in the best interests of All Americans!

He has a lovely wife; two fine young daughters; believes that the home is the arch: and proves it by the way he lives!

Platform? Against deficit spending; bureaucratic "snooping" and meddling and excessive controls. Opposes the Brannan Farm Plan as unworkable—save by penalizing taxpayers! Advocates a strong national defense; opposes compulsory health insurance; frowns on any and all doctrines that would "take us down the British socialistic trail which has failed!" Favors a common-sense and realistic approach to today's pressing problems: both domestic and foreign. Frowns on "phony economy" stunts by the national administration; believing that Americans like facts, having confidence in their ability to arrive at wise decisions: once they have the facts, to which he believes they are entitled!

NSLI More Than Paying Premiums

There is a good deal more to protecting your dependents by means of National Service Life Insurance than merely making premium payments when due, veterans are reminded by Floyd D Granger, veterans service officer San Mateo county.

The veteran interested in making sure that no loopholes are left in this regard must also consider the proper designation of beneficiary, and the method of payment of the proceeds of the policy. If like most other ex-servicemen, he has instructed the Veterans Administration to pay the proceeds to his wife in a lump sum, he should also, in Granger's opinion, take precautions against the so-called "common disaster" possibility.

Granger cited the example of a recent case in which a veteran and his wife were both fatally injured in an automobile accident. She survived him by a few hours. As a result, under the laws and regulations governing NSLI, the proceeds of his $10,000 policy were paid into the wife's estate, not directly to their child, who had been named the contigent beneficiary. This mean that the money had to go through probate and other complications.

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

Assemblyman Richard Dolwig was present at our water board meeting May 18. He has agreed to try to aid our sanitary district by attempting to pass legislation that would earmark funds for a sewage disposal plant of our own. We have $95,000.00 in bonds in the sanitary funds, but cost on a structure of this kind would be big, and an estimate would be hard to make. The job would definitely run to more money than we have anyway.

Speaking of board meetings, some of you might like to know more about them. Being just outside San Francisco city limits, and an unincorporated area, we are neither fish nor fowl, and much of our business is carried on by local boards right here in Bayshore. Our own little area has its own sanitation district, water district and fire district. These boards hold meetings one evening a month and are open to any of you that might be interested. These meetings aren't big executive that make you wish you had stayed in bed. Chairmen of these boards are your own neighbors working people just like anybody.

The meetings are held right here in Bayshore, and those of you that don't know when they meet, and would like to take them in, give me a call. I'd be glad to tell you when and where. It would be an easy way for you to find out all the things that go into making your modern way of life run smoothly.

BOARD ELECTION

Mr. David Barry Jr. was elected to the Bayshore school board at last Friday's election. The vote was D. Barry 150, and Berta Hughes 146. There are still some ten absentee ballots to be counted, but it is pretty well accepted that Mr. Barry will take office for a three year term. Good luck Mr. Barry, and may your term in office be one without too many headaches.

We told you last week that the Girl Scouts would be unable to go to Day Camp this year unless we could find one lady to accompany each eight girls. We said too, that this was the first year that women from our own district were asked to accompany the girls. This isnt so. Seems as though this has been the procedure for some years past. Sorry we had our facts mixed on this, but it doesn't solve the problem to know that we've had to face the difficulty before. This Day Camp is a fine thing for our youngsters, but it means finding ladies that can go up in the mornings and come back in the evenings with the girls for several days at a time. The camp is out of Colma, not any great distance. There must be some of you that can spend a few days this summer out in the fresh air.

FOUR GENERATIONS

There are four generations scampering about in the Minnerly household at 159 Acacia. Mr. and Mrs. L. Cormier, parents of Mrs. Minnerly, flew out here from Worcester, Mass. for a visit. It's their first time in California. The Minnerly's children, and their children are also among those present, and that's a lot of family.

The C. Higgins household has had its share of company too. A brother and sister from Stockton, and an Army buddy from Japan. He brought news that Ethel's husband may be in from Japan about July.

Troop 145 of the Boy Scouts has submitted application for renewal of their charter for 1951. They should be sponsored by some institution, but on last May 1, fifteen interested parents met at the Sanitation Hall and discussed the situation and reorganized on a basis called Bayshore Parent Club naming L. P. Dunn as president Dan Blaga is Scout Master, with E. E. Miller as Institutional representative. Chairman of Troop Committee is H. Dirks and committee members are Roy Kessel, James A. Shere, and Harvey C Brey. Assist. Scout Master is Joseph O'Brien. We now have 7 scouts registered.

Mary Ellen Dirk's sister, Margaret Daly is here for a 10 day visit from Utah. When she goes home, she will take Mary Ellen's two boys back with her for a vacation.

There will be a Pack meeting at the school on Friday, May 26, at 7:30 p.m.

SIXTH GRADE

Here's a get well quick note: Mary Caloiraro is recovering from a bout with pneumonia. Hope to see you on your feet soon Mary.

Mrs. Bernard's 6th grade class gave a Hawaiian Pageant at the last PTA meeting. The girls did the hula to music from our school band for the benefit of parents and visitors. The teachers were hostesses, and coffee and cakes were served.

The PTA will give a school luncheon on June 1st for the Bayshore graduating class, and on June 5th, a luncheon for the teachers. With graduation just two weeks off, Mrs. Painchaud, new PTA president, has a full schedule to keep her busy.

The Baptist church is having it promotion day rally exercises or June 11. They will have their vacation school at the church from July 10 to 21.

Services at the Baptist church Sunday morning will be "The Silence of God." Sunday evening will be "Salvation's Door."

Rapsey Gains Legal Support

Three judges of San Mateo county today urged the retention of Judge Rudolph A. Rapsey as justice of first township court.

Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton, of Redwood City, Judge Hugh F. Mullin, who presides over second township justice court, and Judge Edward J. Ryan of Menlo Park City Court have placed themselves on the side of Judge Rapsey for re-election June 6.

Judge Cotton said, "The township justice court is a vital and important unit of our judicial system. Judge Rudolph A. Rapsey has conducted the first township justice's court in a competent manner based on the true American system of humane justice and kindly consideration. It will be to the credit of the first township in this county to retain him as justice."

Services For Otto Yaley This Friday

Funeral services are to be held at 2 o'clock Friday from the N. Grey chapel, San Francisco, for Otto Yaley, brother of Ted Yaley, Bayshore.

The body of Yaley was washed up onto the Sharp Park beach, near Mussell Rock, Tuesday. Yaley and a companion disappeared Sunday aboard a private plane en route from Half Moon Bay to Lodi.

Police surmised today that their plane crashed into the sea. Jed Griffith of El Granada was piloting the plane.

Yaleys body was discovered by two San Francisco youths who were fishing off Mussel Rock.

A resident of 550 Myra Way, San Francisco, Yaley is survived by a widow, two sons, and his brother at Bayshore.

Coast Communities May Incorporate

Following a Thursday meeting, Coastside are one step closer to the communities of the north incorporating into a sixth class city.

A mass meeting was held at Sharp Park to discuss the possibility of such a move. Opening the conclave, Milton Hansen stressed the point that it was absolutely up to the residents of the Coastside whether or not they should incorporate.

Harold Young, Sharp Park, then resented some figures as to what change in taxes would be brought about by such a step. He asserted that if incorporated, the Coastside would receive a fairer share of the taxes paid to the county each year.

It was brought out that at present the taxpayers in the area pay $7.14 per $100 assessed valuation to the county. If incorporated, this would drop to $4.61 per $100. The city tax would be about $1 per $100.

However, C. G. Gay, Sharp Park, asserted that in time the city tax would rise to the level of the county, and hence there would be no real savings.

The meeting concluded with the appointment of several men to investigate the matter further.

BRAKE INSPECTION

As a safety precaution, the California State Automobile Association recommends having automobile wheels removed every 5,000 miles for brake inspection, and for repacking wheel bearings with the proper lubricant.

YOUR DALY CITY GARDEN CLUB NEWS

By ELSIE M. GARRISON

The modern gardener, like the modern architect, is no longer concerned with tradition or custom, but accents the unusual, dramatizes the usual, and most important is always keyed to function.

In other words, when one plans the landscaping of his home, he does so with not only an eye to beauty and proportion, but also with a discriminatory eye toward plants and flowers that will "prove themselves. A garden, like a home, loses its charm, if its tenants are enslaved to its upkeep.

Therefore the correct approach should be to set a "background," of fairly permanent type, such as trees, shrubs, vines and bush, which require a minimum of care. Against these the more showy flowers are at their best. They are easily handled, and at the end of their blooming period, new plants can be put in which makes the transition, without that "bare" look. It is very wise to know beforehand what to expect of your trees and shrubs—At what time of year they will blossom, or if they are the type that will lose their leaves; or what height they will attain in five or ten years.

TREE GROWING

I have known families who have been "gifted" with trees of various kinds, duly planted them, and then found out that the tree grew so fast, it shut out needed light, and became a general nuisance, and in the end, cost quite a sum to have moved. If the recipients of these "gifts" would find out the specific variety they have and look up their characteristics, they would know the proper place to plant them—they would also know whether or not they were worth taking up vantage ground. The sad part of it is that by the time you find out the "hard" way—it is sometimes too late—and you have a full grown tree or shrub, which is neither particularly beautiful, nor has habits which endear them to you, but there they are—ordinary, when they could be exceptional.

Unusual and beautiful effects are achieved within the home by the use of fern and vine, and plants of tropical nature. Begonias, Azaleas and Camellias all are adaptable to the central patio architecture, which is popular in this region.

USE CAUTION

However, one must use caution in sticking to the "functional" pattern for indoor effects. Philodendron, and members of its family, are easily trained, are clean and do not require a controlled temperature, which makes them nice to live with. Ferns which are hardy and ornamental are good, but beware those whose temperament is easily upset by the accidental brush of a curtain or child. The very simplest of plants can be dramatized by the right location, or by lighting effects, which is compatable with homes and furniture of modern design.

COLLECTION

One of the most outstanding collections of planters in lamps and wall brackets, in modern, provincial and period style, is to be found at the Westlake Furniture and Maple Shop, located on lower Mission street towards Colma. Here the owners have commissioned Mr. Frank Frisella, nurseryman and display specialist, whose work and artistry is regularly to be seen at the Palace and Fairmont hotels.

Under his capable hands, these inanimate objects of furniture and accessories take on their maximum objective, and one can choose the dramatic, the distinctive, and the more restrained varieties of plants. Maranthas, Philodendron, Tertusin, Shaffelera, Aralia, Acuiba, etc., are featured.

NEXT MEETING

The next meeting of the Daly City Garden Club will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hunter, 439 Crocker ave. on June 6. The recently acquired trophy will be on display, and a nice program is promised. Anyone interested may call the secretary, Mrs. Lois Hansen at DE 3-2680.

Daly City Librarian Explains How Children's Books Are Chosen

By LORRAINE DE FANTI
Daly City Librarian

At a recent meeting of the Association of Children's Librarians of Northern California which convened at the San Francisco public library, the assembled librarians were very fortunate to meet and enjoy an informal address from the noted children's author Marguerite DeAngeli.

Although Mrs. DeAngeli's visit marked the highpoint of the afternoon's activities, the meeting and book reviews which are a regular feature of the association, were attended to prior to the address of the guest speaker. This was the first meeting held by this group to be attended by Daly City's assistant librarian.

With typical wide eyed interest and curiosity which is characteristic of a novice, I observed and absorbed as many points of the business as I felt would be of use to me in my library work. Because of the exigencies of time, only twenty of the some fifty children's books scheduled for the meeting were reviewed.

BOOK REVIEWS

The system used by the association for these book reviews runs briefly as follows: Librarians from different libraries situated all over northern California are represented in this organization. Pre-release copies of forthcoming new children's books are sent to the association by the various publishers. These books are then distributed to individual members who then become responsible for reading them and preparing critical reviews—reviews which they report and discuss at future institute meetings.

After considerable discussion of a book's merit or drawbacks, the members vote and assign a rating to the book under consideration. These ratings range from the highest or star rating to the lowest—rejected. Then a list of the books reviewed and their respective ratings is mailed to every member of the association throughout the state. Such a list provides individual librarians with an excellent guide for ordering, for these women have been trained and are experienced in their work with children's literature.

Library Help

Naturally with the number of books published it is an impossibility to read them all, but through the work of this organization, one can keep abreast of worthwhile children's publications. These review lists are not intended to coerce librarians into purchasing only those books which it rates favorably, but rather its main purpose is to share with all the members the opinions and experience of Association participants. Naturally, depending upon the size of the establishment and the budget allotted, each librarian adapts the suggestions and findings of this accredited group to the individual needs and interests of the library in which she serves.

I found this meeting to be an extremely interesting and beneficial one, and I am confident that participation in this organization will prove to be of great use and importance in the selection and analysis of children's books.

AUTHOR EXPLAINS

After the meeting, Mrs. De Angeli was presented to the group by chairlady Miss Betsy Schilpp from San Mateo public library. The author spent a little time describing the process involved when one starts to write a book. She emphasized the time which elapses between getting the first idea, getting it down on paper, and finally out in its perfected form in a book. Her technique, she explained, was to get right into the subject with which she was dealing, so that she could get a "definite feeling for it." This often involved visiting different places and countries in an effort to visualize what conditions were like at the time a particular story took place.

Also one must do extensive reading and research to get an accurate background. These are but a few numerous steps an author must take if he is to succeed in making his characters and ideas come alive. An interest in foreign-born and minority groups that began in her childhood, has determined the subject matter for most of Marguerite DeAngeli's books for children.

DRAWINGS

The delicate and expressive drawings are an outstanding quality of her works for she is an accomplished artist as well as a gifted storyteller. Several of the books have received literary honors in the past.

A recent indication of the caliber of her writing and illustrations is to be found in the case of her latest book, "The Door in the Wall," which was awarded the Newberry Award for 1949. . . an award given the author of the most distinguished children's book.

I would suggest all parents acquaint themselves and their children with Mrs. DeAngeli's books. The Daly City library is the place to find them.

YOUNG GERMAN BOY --- AUTHOR AT 15 --- REQUESTS FOOD, HELP FROM D. C.

How is it to be young, to be writing a book and to be always hungry in post-war Europe?

This is to be such a boy as 15-year-old Egon M. von Asow of Berlin. Three years ago Ego published his first work. . . . the poetry and life of Goethe. Since then he has been writing a second volume on the childhood of men who have made history.

Whether or not the owlish faced lad finishes his second work, and goes on to more important writing may depend on some resident, or organization in Daly City.

Egon, like so many of the youths of the world, is slowly starving to death. His mother, a writer in her own right, reports that he now weighs 68 pounds.

"We have been forced to take him out of school," his mother said in a letter recently to Mrs. Van Erp, 390 Hillside. "And unless we can find means to purchase potatoes and other staples, I don't know what will happen."

Mrs. Erp has been sending packages to the Von Asow family, but as she is supporting a sister-in-law in Berlin she says she can no longer afford to feed the young boy's family.

Behind the plea of Mrs. Erp for assistance for the Von Asows is an interesting trick of fate.

Over 1½ years ago Mrs. Erp saw a picture in the Daly City Record, (sent to us from New York) of young Egon. The caption of the cut read:

"Egon M. von Asow of Berlin's British sector works on his second book following the publication of his first, 'Goethe For Pupils Of The Third Grade In High School.' Egon is trying to earn enough money to make a trip to the U. S. A student in Berlin high school, he is literally writing his own way."

Mrs. Erp clipped out the picture, believing it might be of interest to her sister-in-law in Berlin.

A few months later the Daly City woman received an answer from the sister-in-law. Yes, she knew the Von Asows, and they lived only four doors away from her home. She hadn't met them, but when the picture came she rushed over to show them that their son had "made the pages" of an American newspaper.

Soon the two families became good friends, Mrs. Erp said. Since then she has learned that Egon's father was a Doctor of Music at the University of Berlin. However, with the closing of the university, the elder Von Asow has been unable to find work, and the family is literally starving to death.

Mrs. Erp has done all she can to help the Berlin family, even to the point of sending young Egon some material for his new book. But now she can do no more.

Egon has written several letters to Mrs. Erp, as has his mother. Each of the letters expresses gratitude for what the Daly City woman has been able to do, and they also give an insight into life in Berlin.

This, Mrs. Erp believes, is an opportunity for some Daly City organization, or individual to assist a family in need, and at the same time gain satisfaction from a stimulating correspondence.

Anyone interested in assisting the Von Asow family is asked to contact Mrs. Erp at JUniper 7-3446.

Better still, the Von Asow family can be reached by writing them in Berlin at Charlottenburg 2, Kantstrasse 153, (British Sector).

Some 35 guests were present. The party was given on the Lieutenants birthday, Wednesday, May 17. Another navy man from Guam also returned home this week. He is Chief Joe Ringhoffer, 44 Mateo avenue. Chief Ringhoffer is also stationed on the Zelima.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pyne, 207 Woodrow, recently flew to San Diego to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Forrey. Mr. Forrey is a chief in the U. S. Navy. Then, last week, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Becker, another daughter and son-in-law from Orville, California, came to Daly City for a visit with the Pynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gisberto Fontana, 143 Citrus, who will be leaving for a three months visit to Italy May 30, were given a going away party last week by friends. The party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Donati, 189 San Diego avenue. Many of the Fontana's friends were present at the gathering.

Mrs. Rose Loomis, 115 Flournoy, was one of several Daly City residents who attended the Spanish American War Veterans convention in San Diego this week. As captain of the Rictor McKinn Auxiliary, San Francisco, Mrs. Loomis was an official delegate to the convention. She left here last Saturday, and is expected to return this weekend.

"Cinderella and the Magic Slipper," Plus Walt Disney Star, In SSF Saturday

A musical to delight the young and old alike is to be presented in South San Francisco this Saturday night.

The show is "Cinderella and the Magic Slipper," an extravaganza sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary Bernard McCaffery Unit No. 355.

But not only will Cinderella be present at the Magnolia school auditorium, Grant street, at 8:15 p.m. Also on hand will be none other than the famous Walt Disney "voice," Miss Lucille Bliss.

Miss Bliss portrayed the part of the wicked step-mother in the recent Walt Disney production of Cinderella. She will be the guest at the show, and give the audience a brief insight into her activities in the famed Hollywood studios. (By the by, "Cinderella," the movie, is showing this Sunday at the State theatre in South San Francisco.)

The principal attraction of the show will be a cast of 80 children from Leota's Studio of Dance and Drama, Ranch Buri Buri, South San Francisco.

In fact the whole show is being produced by Mrs. Leota M. Swager. This, in itself, is assurance that the musical will be well worth seeing. Mrs. Swager was formerly with Adolph Bohn in opera ballet; Max Reinhardt's productions and several other musicals and plays.

Leota's Studio is also well known in Daly City. The fine work she did in the May Day festival will be long remembered.

"Leota Swager from Buri Buri did an outstanding job with the people she brought here from South San Francisco," Erle Johnson said of her work in the May Day pagent. "Leota believes in doing things in a big way and she really does a good job."

But back to "Cinderella and the Magic Slipper."

Acting in the role of Cinderella will be Marilyn Anderson, with Marck Nelson as the dashing Prince Alie and Betty Clark as the heartless stepmother, Lucie.

The musical was written by Kenny Kingston, who wrote the play in memory of his dear friend, Grace Moore, with whom he toured Europe. Kingston is also assisting Leota in the production of his work.

Reservations for the South City performance may be made by telephoning JUno 8-9213 or JUno 8-8183. Also, tickets may be purchased at the door.

Look, Red Cross Lady—I'm Walking

San Francisco, Calif.—When Sally Herman, aged two, began long months of treatment to correct the club feet with which she was born, the Red Cross stepped in to provide weekly transportation from her home to Mt. Zion Hospital.

The picture at left shows Sally in the arms of a Red Cross volunteer as she started the treatment, heavy casts on her legs.

Camporee Outing Scout Troop 249 Enjoys Overnight

Members of Troop 249, Boy Scouts of America, Daly City, enjoyed an overnight camporee at San Mateo Memorial Park Saturday and Sunday, May 20 and 21.

Outdoor activities, including camp cooking, tracking, signalling, map reading, compass reading, hiking, and first aid, were engaged in by the scouts.

Under the supervision of Richard Traxler, scoutmaster, and Joe Lang, assistant scoutmaster, a large group of Tenderfoot Scouts passed the requirements for the rank of Second Class and will appear before the Board of Review at a future date.

The following scouts participated in the camporee: Larry Neuner, Bert McKenna, Donald Pennington, Hermann Pelz, Michael Dotterweich, Donald Parshall, Billy Gensel, Freddy Newton, Donald Perrin, Walter McArdle, Richard McArdle, Phillip Delucchi, Billy Tylenda, Charlie Derham, and Michael Traxler.

Several members of the Troop Committee, including Orin Wakefield, Bert McKena, Richard Traxler, and Joe Lang, provided transportation for the outing.

A day of fun and sightseeing was spent Thursday, May 18, by Charlie Derham and Donald Parshall, champion ticket salesmen for the Scout Exposition in the San Francisco area. These boys, together with scout officials and the leading ticket salesman from the Los Angeles area, lunched at the Californian, talked over Radio Station KFRC, rode the cable cars, and took a Bay cruise on the General Cox excursion boat.

The rank of Tenderfoot Scout was received by Darrel Hutchinson and Bill Hunter at last Thursday's meeting, held at 7:30 at Bellevue Hall.

The San Mateo Junior chamber of commerce sponsored the contest.

Recreation Committee Recommends Larger Club House For Edgewood Park

Edgewood Terrace's new playground may have one of the finest clubhouses in the city.

At least that is the hope of Mrs. Jane Keith, who made the request for the enlarged clubhouse at the regular meeting of the Daly City Recreation Committee Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Keith pointed out that a small clubhouse is now planned for the park. Why not, she reasoned, spend a few more dollars and put up a building that can be used both by the children and the community at large for social activities.

Her proposal met with the approval of the committee, and they have referred the matter to the city council, Elman Rose, recereation director, said.

Also of importance to the community was the announcement that plans for the summer recreation program have been completed.

"The program will be similar to last summer," Rose said, "although, this year we will have the addition of a softball league."

Vernon Dean, landscape architect, for the new parks, submitted a report on development plans of the park sites.

In the light of Dean's report, Rose was instructed to prepare a priority schedule of development to be presented to the recreation committee for study. The schedule will be used as a basis for a work progress report to the city council.

Some changes were also discussed in the layout plans of the parks. These met with the approval of the committee, and were passed.

Only other business before the group, Tuesday, was the passage of the 1950-51 recreation budget. This has been sent to the council for their approval.

Young Ladies Form Bike Club

Bike riders will be happy to know that there is now a Daly City Girls Bike club.

The club was formed last week, and the charter membership stands at eight young ladies. As their first act, the riders took a trip through Daly City.

Donna Hiett is president of the club, and further information as to meetings and activities may be obtained by calling her at JU 4-3486.

Other officers include: Mary Fulwider, vice-president; Lilianne Boynton, secretary; Marjorie Smith, treasurer.

Scholarships In Music Offered

Scholarships are now available for talented Bay area students of piano, voice, 'cello and the woodwinds.

The scholarships are for the eight weeks' summer session of the Music Academy of the West at Santa Barbara.

Applications for scholarships must be made in writing and addressed to Muriel Macgurn, 2045 California street, San Francisco, before June 15.

Auditions will be held in San Francisco, Saturday, June 24. Faculty members of the academy will be on the auditioning committee.

Toyland Nursery School Cuts Enrollment

Hoping to appease their neighbors, the Toyland Nursery School, 462 Templeton, now has five children enrolled instead of the original 10, Mrs. Grace Wilson, manager, said today.

The cut in enrollment followed the city's turning the whole matter over to the San Mateo District Attorney's office. The DA's office and Mrs. Wilson reached an agreement whereby it is legal for her to have five children, plus her own child, in the school.

"We will operate the school with the five children until September when we hope to move into the Grace Presbyterian church," Mrs. Wilson said.

The controversy arose several months ago when two neighbors asserted that 10 children made too much noise in the neighborhood, and it was not safe to have that many youngsters in one house. At that time Mrs. Wilson was operating the school under the assumption she would get the approval of the state for the 10 children.

The state license did not come through, so today Mrs. Wilson cut the enrollment, and is now operating her school under a county license.

It is expected that when she moves the school to the church in September that it will handle from 40 to 50 children in this area.

Civic League Protests Slight Budget Cuts

The San Mateo County Civic League today registered a "mild protest" against the "ineffective efforts" of the county supervisors to trim the $12,183,265 1950-51 budget.

S. A. Keyston, president of the league, said he had hoped more than $21,646 could be cut off the budget. He had hoped that the supervisors could equal last year's slash of $600,000.

DALY CITY—COLMA

Four Girl Scouts will spend several summer weeks at Camp Matrup, thanks to the generosity of the Daly City Lions Club.

At their regular meeting Wednesday, the Lions presented Mrs. Marie Miller, Scout representative, with a check to finance the four girls.

Meanwhile, in another move to assist the youth of the community, the Lions reminded all parents of the Junior Olympics to be held here June 4. At that time several elementary schools will vie for honors in various track events.

Last year only five parents appeared to see their children in the Olympics. The Lions hope there will be a better showing this year.

Ralph's Cleaners End Season; Play Game This Sunday

Winding up the San Francisco Class "A" softball league spring season Monday, Ralph's Cleaners lost a heartbreaker 10 to 8 to Marty-the-Geary.

But this isn't the end of softball for the boys. They plan to continue with exhibition games until the summer San Francisco League opens in July. At that time, as in years before, they will take an active part in all summer games.

Unfortunately Ralph's hasn't been publicized in the Record before. However, watch this paper for the activities of the team sponsored by Ralph's Cleaners, a Daly City establishment located at 71 templeton.

Ralph Torigien, owner of the shop, a player on the team, promises his lads will really make a good showing during the summer.

"The spring is kind of a warm up for the months ahead," Ralph explained. "We haven't done too well so far, but watch our steam after July."

While several of the team members are from San Francisco, the majority of the nine reside in Daly City. Other players on the team besides Ralph include: John Licier, Frank Gerhow, John and David Hockett and Bob Frako.

This Sunday Ralphs will be playing their first exhibition game in Redwood City. The game is to begin at 8:30 p.m. at Hawes Field. Why not come down, and give your Daly City team the support they deserve?

Plenty Of Bass At San Joaquin

Although fishing is occasionally slow during the current spawning season, there are plenty of striped bass in the San Joaquin River, according to a report from the Division of Fish and Game.

On a recent two-day tagging trip, inland fisheries biologists netted more than 400 stripers which weighed an average of 15 pounds each. The largest fish tagged and released tipped the scales at 40 pounds. No tagged bass was caught a second time.

The three-ton haul brings the total number of tagged stippers to 1,200 for the year. Goal for 1950 tagging operations is 2,000 fish.

Striped bass, as well as a dozen other California fish species, are being tagged to determine how rapidly they are caught and what percentage may safely be taken each year. Anglers returning fish tags to the Division of Fish and Game with notes giving size, date, and place of catch, will be providing another piece for the jigsaw puzzle research picture.

St. Michael's Wins League Title

A homerun in the last inning of the game Friday, won a league championship for St. Michaels in their contest against Epiphany.

The final score was 6 to 4, but in the last half of the ninth, when pitcher Richard Watso stepped up to bat, Epiphany was ahead by one run. Watso conected with a ball, driving in a homer and two other men on base.

Watso not only drove in the final runs for his team mates, but after the fourth inning he pitched a four hit game.

Other heroes of the day were Tommy Costello, who was on the mound until the fourth, and Jo Cerrito who came through with a triple in the second inning.

Gateway to the World

Someone has said this picture should have been taken from another angle. He wanted to place the camera outside the gate and take a picture of the beautiful garden through the arbor.

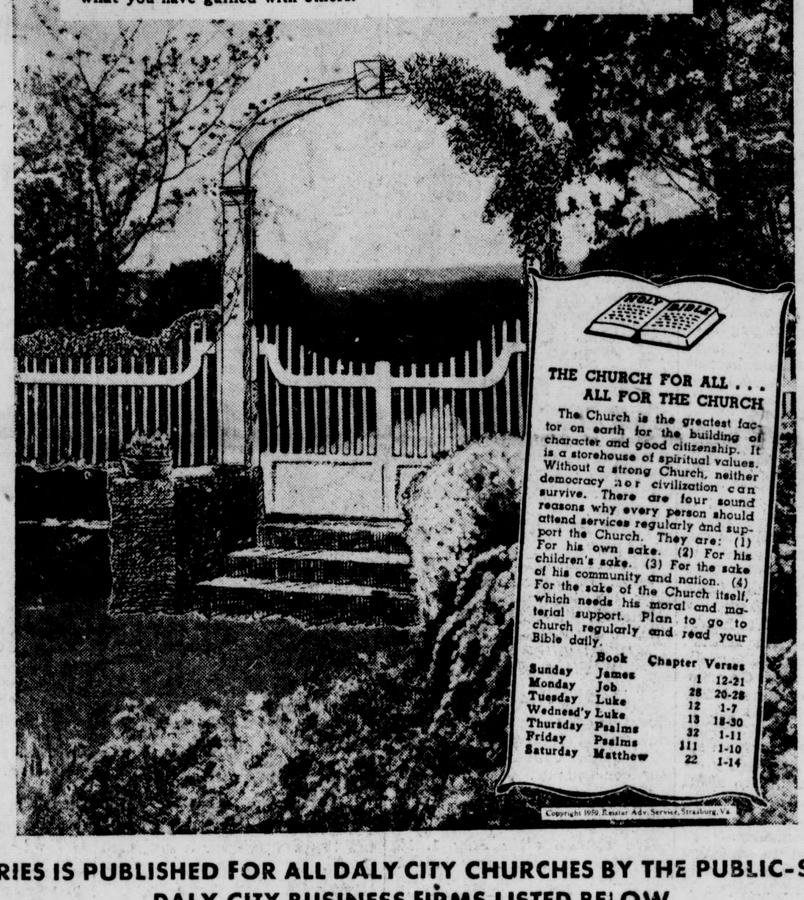
But we asked for this view . . . looking from the garden to the world outside. Why?

Because a man can't spend his life lounging in the garden. To live, he has to face the world.

And to live nobly, he has to carry the beauty of his garden out into the wilderness.

In our Churches we discover the beauty of life when it is cultivated and fruitful. Then we are able to carry something of that beauty into the world.

Attend Church next Sunday! And all week you will want to share what you have gained with others.



HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Whitmore Endorsed By Newspapers

Moving into the final two week stretch in the race for Sheriff of San Mateo county, Earl B. Whitmore's campaign gained more momemtum with the editorial endorsements of four county newspapers and the volunteering of hundreds of new supporters.

Whitmore is the only candidate for sheriff to date that has been endorsed by San Mateo county newspapers. Two daily newspapers, the Redwood City Tribune and the Burlingame Advance were first to make endorsements followed last Friday by the San Bruno Herald and the San Bruno Recorder.

The Burlingame Advance has this to say: "Five candidates are in the field for sheriff of San Mateo county. Of these, only two have law enforcement experience: the incumbent and Earl B. Whitmore, Redwood City police sergeant now on a year's leave of absence to study law.

"Whitmore, a young man with an excellent record in police work, is our choice for the position.

"The sheriff's practice of announcing to the newspapers that he would raid a certain gambling joint, then make the "raid" only to find the place "clean" has been a ridiculous affront to the intelligence of every citizen.

"In addition, after more than 20 years on the job, the sheriff takes an increasingly less active part in law enforcement, having virtually the entire task in the hands of subordinates.

"Earl B. Whitmore, on the other hand, offers not only the training and experience to perform the job well, but the eagerness to get in there and do a good job."

Rapidly mounting support for the election of Charles DeSalvatore as county controller June 6, was reported today from his campaign workers throughout the county.

They said that DeSalvatore has visited with many organizations and individuals in every section of the county, and has received enthusiastic support.

No candidate for public office is waging a campaign more intensive than that being made by DeSalvatore, according to his friends. They added he attends as many as a dozen meetings in the course of a day and night, explaining his program for better service to the taxpayers.

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

A Story With An Evident Moral

Three young boys were apprehended by police Wednesday evening throwing rocks through car windows on Hillside boulevard.

Scene of the "crime" was the vacant lot next to the Daly City Boys Club.

When officers queried the lads as to why they had thrown the rocks, one blonde haired boy replied:

"We're waiting for the Boys Club to open."

TRUSTEES THANK VOTERS

Mrs. McGeein Cognizant of Trust

Mrs. Mildred McGeein elected last Friday to the office of trusteeship of the Jefferson Union high school district, wishes to express her sincere thanks to the voters, the press, and the many friends who aided her in her successful campaign.

Mrs. McGeein said, "I am most gratified by the confidence the voters expressed in me at the last election. I am sincerely thankful to all the friends and loyal supporters who aided me in my campaign. I will do my utmost to serve all the people of the district in the best interest of their children. I am cognizant of the trust placed in me by the electorate and will do everything in my power to contribute to the successful administration of the Jefferson Union high school."

Mike Callan Expresses Thanks

Michael (Carter) Callan today expressed thanks for the confidence the community has shown in him by returning him to the position of Jefferson elementary school board trustee.

The 30-year-old Daly City business man received a unanimous vote of confidence in the school board election held here last Friday.

He said it was "gratifying to know" that the school district was in favor of eliminating double sessions. It was on this issue that Callan based a good part of his platform for election to the board.

"The election was more than a vote to return me to office," Callan said. "The people have also expressed approval of mine, and the school district's plan, to eliminate 'swing shift' education through construction of more schools.

Callan reiterated that he would continue to fight for a better school system through more schools, fine teachers, and proper recreation facilities.

"I can assure everyone in the school district that during the coming years I will live up to the trust they have shown in me by doing my utmost to make the Jefferson elementary school district the best in California."

Ferko Qualified For Assessor Job

Citing an impressive list of qualifications the Ferko for Assessor Committee presents a well qualified candidate for the June 6 primary election.

Highlights of the Ferko background include:

1. Former mayor of South San Francisco. He did not seek re-election this year. When elected he attained the highest vote ever accorded a candidate. His administration has been hailed by community leaders as the city's most progressive.

2. World War II Veteran. As a Navy flyer Ferko won citations for his services with the Pacific fleet.

3. Former school teacher. Prior to entering the services shortly after declaration of war upon Japan he taught school and coached football at South San Francisco high school.

4. Stanford graduate. While a student on "the farm" he majored in political science.

5. Leo Ferko augmented his formal training by taking a year's post graduate work with the Coro Foundation of San Francisco. While with the Foundation he specialized in study of the assessors' problems in Bay Area counties.

Supporting the Ferko campaign are leaders from all ranks of public life as well as a strong group of veterans.

Ruth Bradley Addresses Groups

Ruth Bradley's unusual campaign for election to the board of supervisors of San Mateo county increases momentum daily with brief and meaty talks to various civic groups and organizations.

Earlier this week Mrs. Bradley addressed many informal groups in various parks throughout the county and has appeared before more than a dozen clubs and, at all times, has stressed points of her platform which include a sane economy backed by sound business principles and industrial expansion providing equal opportunity for all the people living in this county, regardless of station, color or creed.

James Shanley Asks Support

James F. Shanley, a candidate for the office of San Mateo County Recorder, is making an intensive campaign throughout the county on his excellent record as a public official. He has made many appearances before civic and club groups.

Shanley has been a capable administrator of public service with the U. S. Internal Revenue Service in San Mateo county for the past 16 years. He is a registered public accountant in the State of California and a member of the San Mateo Elks Lodge 112. He has the endorsement of the United A. F. of L. Political Education Committee and the Peninsula Automotive Machinists, Lodge 1414 I.A.M.

The office of the county recorder was made vacant by the death of the late T. Clark Rice last year.

Mr. Shanley asks the support of his many friends and new neighbors on his proven record as a public servant. He is married, and lives at 908 Walnut street, San Carlos, with his family.

Spillers Gains Backing By All County Groups

Added impetus to the growing boom for the campaign of Robert "Bob" Spillers for sheriff in San Mateo county came today as a group of housewives and women's group leaders banded together for a telephone and house-to-house canvass of votes for the Redwood City councilman candidate.

Simultaneously Spillers charged that he would sue for slander the originators of increasingly bold rumors that "gambling interests" in Reno were "pumping money" into the Spillers' campaign.

"I have used only my own money, and small contributions from San Mateo county voters who are campaigning in my behelf," Spillers declared, "And I defy anyone to substantiate these filthy lies that gambling interests are behind my campaign. Such slander is ridiculous on the face of it," he added. "When you stop to consider that the only candidate known allegedly to consort with known gambling figures is the incumbent. And none of my other opponents, I am confident, are anywheres near as intimate with gambling figures.

"I shall prosecute to the limit, providing I can find out who is starting these mud-slinging rumors. The Spillers for Sheriff Committee has open records for anyone interested in checking our campaign expenditures. We have been fortunate in having many volunteer campaign workers, whose efforts have made the money we have spent seem to go as far as the larger sums one or two of my opponents have spent."

Meanwhile women of the county volunteering for the phone and house-to-house canvass are working with Mrs. Jeanne Levey of San Mateo, Mrs. Jack Denton of East Palo Alto, president of Ravenswood PTA, Harriet Kalliam and Mrs. Marie Bolster of San Mateo and Burlingame, Mary T. Tracy of Redwood City.

Also, in a surprise voluntary move startlingly unusual in political circles, a group of teen-age boys today offered their spare time services to further the campaign of Robert "Bob" Spillers, Redwood City councilman, All-American athlete, and long-time sponsor of juvenile athletic teams in San Mateo county. Spillers seeks the office of Sheriff of San Mateo county in the June 6 election.

The boys, as spokesmen for more than 45 other youths, visited Spillers at his home, 426 Clinton St., Redwood City, to offer their services in making house-to-house canvasses for votes, in distributing campaign literature, and in other campaign work.

Leading the group—most of whom have played with or against Spillers-sponsored baseball, basketball and bowling teams in various community, county and peninsula recreation leagues during the last several years—were Tom Bean, 8677 Fifth avenue, Redwood City; Paul Prather, 1117 Clinton, Redwood City; Glen Kovas, 733 Bell, Palo Alto; Dick Lauer, 906 Ruth avenue, Belmont, Lewis Bonnamaison, 1063 Hall, San Carlos; and Don Sato, 948 Middle avenue, Menlo Park.

"We can't vote for Bob Spillers for Sheriff," declared Bean, offering the group's services, "But we can sure ask voters to support Bob. He's the kind of All-American sportsmen and businessman we need more of in our public offices."

Women Give Sen. J. O'Gara Support

Mrs. Arthur M. Brown, Jr., is chairman of the city-wide nonpartisan Women's Committee supporting the reelection of Senator Gerald J. O'Gara for State Senator.

The Women's Committee numbers over three hundred members who will conduct a separate personal campaign and coordinate with the district committees for O'Gara in their neighborhoods. The district women represent both Republican and Democratic parties, and the various religious, fraternal, and civic organizations in their communities.

Bayshore Plans Under Study

Still another improvement in the Bayshore highway was promised this week by the San Mateo planning commission.

The commission has approved a new street plan to go into effect when Bayshore Freeway and the Third avenue cloverleaf are constructed in San Mateo. The plan calls for traffic going over the off-coming ramp of the cloverleaf west from El Camino Real to join Crystal Springs road.

Should the plan be adopted, the section of San Mateo between Second and Fourth avenue and between Railroad avenue and Bayshore highway, probably would be developed into a business section.

McGrath Answers "Mud Slinging"

"The mud slinging of my political opponents, two of them in particular, has taken a new theme at this late date of the campaign. Now they are subjecting the youth of San Mateo county to a mud bath by calling them "hoodlums!"

Sheriff James J. McGrath, candidate for re-election in the June 6th primary election, today made that statement in hitting back at two of his political opponents.

"One of my opponents goes so far as to say that a "wave of Hoodlumism amongst juveniles" has hit the county while the other opponent promises that if he is elected he will personally take over the juvenile problem.

"Apparently both of these gentlemen have forgotten that there exists a juvenile court in San Mateo county presided over by Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton and that under the law all juvenile problems are handled by the county probation department headed by Mr. John S. Cowgill.

"In the handling of all juvenile matters I have always cooperated with these proper authorities.

"In my estimation this political attack against the youth of San Mateo county, launched for the sole purpose of getting votes, is an insult to the parents, the parent-teacher groups and the school authorities of San Mateo county.

"One of these character assassinators went so far as to cause to be published in a San Francisco newspaper this smear against the youth of our county by holding up our county as the center of young hoodlums . . . which it is NOT!"

ADVERTISING PAYS

"It pays to advertise" is a slogan that automobile drivers might well take to heart, points out the California State Automobile Association. Advertise your intentions to turn, slow down or stop by giving proper arm signals. It pays returns in traffic safety.

Jones Charges Political Abuse

Charging he is the victim of judicial abuse, Proctor Jones today requested a public apology from Superior Judge A. R. Cotton. Jones is a candidate for sheriff.

The request is based on Judge Cotton's recent statement that Jones was "guilty of a misdemeanor" in his political advertising. Jones was cleared of the charge by District Attorney Louis B. DeMatteis following a hearing on the matter requested by Jones.

"My request," Jones said in a prepared statement, "is made simply in the spirit of fair play. We have not taken more serious legal action against the judge out of respect for his advanced age and his eminent position in our county.

"However, the fact he found me "guilty of a misdemeanor" without a hearing and based his conviction on an error not of my own commission seems to call for a correction inasmuch as I am running for election to a public law enforcement office.

JEFF HIGH SWIM STAR TAKES MEET
Norm Cady Takes Top Honors In Northern California Free Style

Norm Cady, wound up a brilliant swimming career last Saturday by winning the B-50 meter free style, at the N.C.S. swimming meet.

Competing with 250 swimmers from 84 other schools in and around the bay area, Cady took high honors in the 50 meter race.

In two years of swimming competition, as a free styler, Cady has never been beaten in Peninsular Athletic League duel or league meets.

Last year as a freshman, Cady went undefeated in the 50 and 100 free style.

In the P.A.L. finals a few weeks ago, Cady tied the P.A.L. 50 free style record, a first time in over a decade that any Jeff swimmer has ever been able to do so.

It is truly a great finish for a great swimmer, and though he still has two more years to go, there is no telling just what kind of records little Norm Cady will go after and break.

In varsity competition at the N.C.S. meet, Jeff did not do too well. In the 100 free, Les Nicolini of Jeff took 6th as Stan Davis took 5th in the 150 individual medly. The Jefferson relay team, consisting of Stan Davis, Les Nicolini, Loren Wedel and Tom Leach placed 6th in a hard fighting finish.

While Cady was taking the 50 free style, teammate Ed Galindo, a promising up and coming diver, took an 8th in B diving out of 23 competitors.

Flashy Bill Allen took 4th in a great finish in the B 100 free style. The B relay team, who tied with Sequoia in the P.A.L. finals, came out a little behind as they took 3rd behind Sequoia and Berkely.

The boys that swam that event were Norm Cady, Ed Galindo, Dave Nathan, and Bill Allen.

Junior Olympics For Elementary Schools Scheduled June 4

What promises to be the biggest single sports event for the "small fry" of the community is coming up June 4 with the Lions Club Junior Olympics.

The Olympics, to be held at Jefferson high school beginning at 11 a.m., are strictly for the benefit of the boys and gals of the elementary schools.

Schools participating in this year's event include Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Jefferson elementary and Crocker.

The winning school will be presented with a large gold cup. This perpetual trophy may be kept by the school for one year, or until such time as they lose it to another school in the Olympics.

Individual winers are to be given medals and place ribbons.

There will be two series of track and field events to correspond with the various ages of the contestants.

In charge of the affair for the Lions club will be Jim Snell. Earle Johnson, director of elementary school recreation, will be in charge of the actual event.

Further details on the Olympics will be in next week's Record.

Daly City Sportswomen To Assist Men At First Junior Club Meeting

By MRS. E. K. WHINNEN

The Daly City Sportswomen will assist the Daly City Rod and Gun Club, with the first meeting of the Junior Sportsmen, to be held Wednesday night, June 7, at the city recreation hall, on Bellevue.

Junior Sportsmen is a club for boys from 12 to 17 years old, who are interested in fishing and hunting, sponsored and organized by the Daly City Rod and Gun club. The Sportswomen will furnish and serve the refreshments for the evening. Any of the Sportswomen who can, are asked to bring cakes, doughnuts, or cookies, and help serve the boys that night. The men will enroll the boys and help them get their club set up. It is expected that after the by-laws have been formulated and officers elected, the boys will run their own club, under the auspicies of the Rod and Gun club, with an assist from the Sportswomen.

Reports have it that about 50 boys will be on hand to join up at the first meeting, June 7. If this be so, the Sportswomen will be needing to turn out their bakery products wholesale.

Three amendments to the by-laws were introduced on the floor, discussed and eventually passed, at the last meeting of the Sportswomen, May 17. One limits membership in the Club to 30 members, a second requires a new member to be in the Club in good standing a year, and to attend eight meetings out of the 12 monthly meetings to be eligible for office, and a third sets the month of October for nomination of officers, with the election to be held in November.

All members who can were urged to attend the district meetings of the Associated Sportsmen, held at California Hall the first Thursday of each month at 8 p.m. This is where the clubs learn what is being done in the line of conservation of game, fish, and other natural resources, and about the serious situation pertaining to water pollution, and what is currently being done to correct this ugly threat to fish, waterfowl and health.

Soon there is a case coming up in the courts concerning the sale of hundreds of pounds of bass, which is illegal. Sportswomen were urged to attend these hearings, if possible, and if opportunity permits, make their position known to the court.

Reports on the crab fishing front are that the crabs taken have been very small. Mostly too small to take home. In view of this information, the Sportswomen have decided to go on their crab fishing trip later in the season, when the crabs are larger. The season runs into August, so there will be plenty of time.

The Daly City Rod and Gun Club have asked the Sportswomen to help sell hot dogs at their annual picnic at La Honda Park, in June. Tickets may be optained from any of the Daly City Sportswomen or at the picnic.

Collin Replaces "Wag" As S.M. High Football Coach

Frank Collin, frosh-soph football coach for San Mateo high for the past four years, is the new head football coach at the school today.

The San Mateo high graduate will replace Wagner "Wag" Jorgensen who stepped out of the position to devote full time to the school's physical education program.

Joseph H. Acheson, school principal, said the move has been contemplated for "some time" and that Jorgensen will still be able to fully supervise the general physical education department.

Jorgensen was appointed football coach in 1939, and has twice just missed taking the PAL crown for his team. He served four years in the navy, and returned to San Mateo high in 1946.

Principal Acheson said the announcement of an assistant football and basketball coaches would be made at an early date.

Serra High Honors Players

Members of the Serra high baseball team, including several Daly City and Colma lads, were honored Tuesday night by the Fathers' club.

A banquet was held at the school at which time the league champions were presented with gold baseballs. Father Timothy Casey, coach, presented the awards to the team.

Bucking Horses, Brahma Bulls At Livermore Rodeo

Some of the toughest, wildest rodeo animals in the business will be matching wits against the best of the rodeo circuit cowboys when Harry Rowell's string of bucking horses and brahma bulls are used at the Livermore Rodeo, June 10 and 11.

The horses, especially, have very interesting histories in most cases. Some are feared no end by the professional bronc riders who follow the rodeo circuit in quest of the annual championship crown—sometimes riding their mounts the required ten seconds, sometimes being tossed and sometimes being injured by a flying hoof.

Take Wild Swede, for instance. He is Roswell's outstanding bucking horse, a big, 10-year-old sorrel weighing 1,400 pounds. Many a cowboy, apparently on their way to top money at a rodeo, has been tossed hard when they climbed aboard Wild Swede. And with their discomfort they have seen many dollars in prize money "go up in dust."

Another couple of saddle broncs which command high respect from the cowboys are Major Lou and Sceneshifter. Major Lou is a 1,450-pound bay which has at one time or another bucked off just about every big name cowboy in the business, including Casey Tibbs, present world champion bronc rider. A 12-year old, the Major is usually used in the bronc finals, where only the toughest are selected.

Sceneshifter, by comparison, is small. Weighing little more than 1,000 pounds, this little brown horse is the veteran of the Rowell string. Since coming here from Utah in 1941, Sceneshifter has tossed far more cowboys than ever stayed aboard for the required ten seconds. Once the "king" of all rodeo broncs, cowboys still get slightly tense when they draw the "Shifter."

One of the more spectacular horses is Brin Marr, a 1,200-pound brown gelding imported from Red Bluff two years ago. Originally a saddle horse, Brin is quite gentle—until someone tries to ride him. If a cowboy is good enough to stay on this one, he usually lands in the money.

S. F. Claims County Owes Air Fund Money

Under investigation today is a claim by San Francisco that San Mateo county owes that city $1,802 in gasoline tax funds.

The San Francisco Public Utilities Counsel informed county officials that the money represents taxes collected on gasoline sold at the municipal airport at Mills Field, and returned to San Mateo county by the state.

According to San Francisco authorities, this money must be divided between the county and San Francisco.

ANGLING ANGLES
by old Hi

Let me tell you about some of the new features built into certain items of tackle, which will be giving you greater sport and more assurance of making better catches of game and pan fish this season if you take advantage of them.

A lot of interest is being shown in the glass rods. There is a one-piece solid glass bait casting rod five and one-half feet in length, that is mounted with three chrome-plated guides and tip-top and has an aluminum offset hand grip. Old Hi has found this rod to be flexible, strong and durable. It shoots a plug out with speed and accuracy.

It's amazing to think that half a million glass fibers are pressed into one five-foot casting rod. These fibers are fused into a solid tip through the use of special resins. The life of a glass rod, handled with ordinary care, is almost beyond belief.

There are woven or spun, hollow center glass rods for salt water fishing, such as for surf casting, still fishing, and light trolling. You can get a fiber glass bay rod with 39-inch tip section, rubber butt cap, and metal locking reel seat that is ideal for taking weakfish and flounders.

If you have any questions about glass rods, drop me a letter, in care of this newspaper, and I'll pass the dope on to you. And if you plan to visit the seashore this season, send for your free copy of Old Hi's booklet, "Salt Water Sports Fishing." At the same time ask for your copy of "Fishing For The Millions."

In sending letters for personal reply, or postcards for booklets, please be sure to write or print your name and address plainly.

Those who go spinning will be glad to know that one of the best fixed-spool reels has been improved by placing a "line retainer" on the edge of the spool to prevent the line from dropping behind the spool and snarling.

This spinning reel also has a new slip arrangement on the bail type line pickup, so that the arm goes back farther and cannot be hit and sprung accidentally.

Bait casters who hurl plugs at night or on dark days, will find the new, better-glowing paint finish to be a great advantage. The plugs show up brighter and thus have a wider area of attraction. These may be obtained in standard patterns, such as with red head and white body, scale finish, shore minnow, and pikie.

The upright model of the automatic fly reel is proving to be highly popular with all anglers. This style gives the rod better balance since the weight is placed in a more normal position; hence casting is much easier.

FISH AND GAME NOTES
by Jimmy Fox

There should be a good story about the salmon fishing, for the Daly City Rod and Gun Anglers were out there 20 strong last week.

The weather was fine and the sea calm. Every one was primed to catch fish and had purchased enough tackle to catch a ton or two, of the biggest in the ocean. Only guy who got sick was Ed Nenstiel and he claims it was because he overslept and missed breakfast. He wasn't too sick to catch a fish though, and his 6 pound salmon was the only fish caught by the club all day. Ed also caught a 3 pound hake, which is one of the less desirable fish in the ocean. Few fish were taken by any boat so the Sunday fishing wasn't up to the fine sport the anglers enjoyed on Saturday. Most of the boats got limits or near limits and the weather was perfect bluebird weather.

Up in Antioch in the bass fishing grounds the stripers were just not on the move. Ken Moudy and his Dad fished out of Smitty's Place on the San Joaquin river and had no luck. They reported only a few fish seen all day. The weather was hot and there was no wind so the conditions were okey. Santa Clara Shoals also was a dead spot with lots of fishermen and no fish around.

TROUT FISHING

Trout fishing has been slow in the coastal area with the few fish heard of being rather small. Conn lake near Napa is producing for the trollers and plenty of hardware and worms.

Up in the High Sierras where the season opens on May 27 the outlook is for poor fishing generally. Late snows and a deep snow pack have kept the water high and roily. According to the P. G. & E. reports the north fork of the Feather river will be the best bet in the Feather river country. All of the high lakes are still frozen over or have 3 to 5 feet of snow around them.

Ed Nenstiel, Lorry Goldstien and myself with our families will spend the Memorial day holidays at Laymens on the Feather river where we hope to catch a few fish. Ed has put in a good supply of salmon eggs and worms and I have plenty of "Golden Feather' flies so one of us should get a trout or two. We intend to fish the Middle Fork of the Feather, Nelson creek and possibly Grass lake. Lorry will fish the North Fork near Seneca on opening day. When we get back I should know what's what on the fishing front up in that country.

RIFLE CLUB

The San Francisco Rifle Association has just completed it's 1950 Gallery League. Winning teams shot some of the highest scores in the leagues history. The Palo Alto Rifle club took the Class "A" by winning 15 and losing 0 matches. Second place went to the Golden Gate Rifle and Pistol Club who won 10 and lost 5. Class "B" winner with 14 wins and 1 loss was the S. F. Surf Club, while the S. F. Telephone Club won 10 and lost 5 to take second place.

Class "C" was won by the Presidio Rifle and Pistol club with 13 wins and 2 losses. Second place to the Airliners Rifle Team, 10 wins and 5 losses. The Palo Alto club is back in first place in the "D" league with 12 wins and no losses and the U. S. Marines of San Francisco took second place with 9 wins and 3 losses.

That winds up the indoor shooting for the current year but the outdoor shooters are just warming up. The S. F. Rifle association is about to open a super duper rifle range down at Sharps Park. It will be open to the public and this fall the National Rifle association will hold its national matches there. There will be over 100 firing positions and plenty of room for everyone who wants to shoot.

JUNIOR CLUB

Hey, Kids, the Junior Rod and Gun club starts soon. Wednesday, June 7, is the date, and the meetings will be held in the old firehouse No. 5 at 337 Bellevue ave., Daly City. First and third Wednesday of each month will be meeting night. The meetings will start at 7:15 o'clock.

All boys between the ages of 12 and 17 years old are eligible for membership upon their parents consent. Application blanks are available from senior Rod and Gun club members or from the Daly City Hardware Store.

The first meeting will be run by the senior advisors and the boys will have the program outlined to them. A committee of boys will be chosen to draw up a set of by-laws. On their third meeting the boys will elect their own club officers. The program of instructions is getting along very well. Most of the Senior instructors are all set to get their courses under way. The division of fish and game and the department of forestry have furnished plenty of material to work with. In fact the way it looks now some of the fathers might well sit in on the meetings and learn something.

Stanford Hikes Tuition Fees

There was bad news from Stanford university for high school graduates this week.

With the beginning of fall term, Stanford will up tuition $20 a quarter, President Wallace Sterling said. Sterling said the increase was necessary to balance the 1950-51 budget.

The 10 per cent increase will boost tuition to $660 a year for all undergraduates and most graduate students.

Irish Clans Rally May 31

The Irish Colony of San Francisco and of the East Bay area will rally at a public meeting, under the auspices of the Knights of the Red Branch at the K. R. B. Hall, 1133 Mission street, on Wednesday evening, May 31, at 8 o'clock.

Special speakers at this meeting will discuss the situation in the area, compromisingly known as "Northern Ireland" and will analyze the act known as the "Special Powers Act" of the Belfast Parliament, under which prominent Ulster men are now being detained, untried, in the prison in Belfast.

There also will be a program of musical and literary numbers contributed by local artists, and admission will be free to the public.

Dolwig Given S. M. County Support

Wayne Millington, county chairman of the Dolwig for Assemblyman Committee, today announced strong support being gathered for re-election of Assemblyman Richard J. "Dick" Dolwig.

Typical of the support being accorded Dolwig is the statement made by Claude Hirschey, former mayor of San Mateo and prominent San Mateo county Democrat, who says, "your record as an Assemblyman representing San Mateo county deserves the continued support of all Democrats."

Strong planks in the Dolwig legislative program that have earned him support from all groups in the county include:

1. His insistance that Bayshore Freeway be completed as soon as possible.
2. His advocating a Southern Crossing of San Francisco bay rather than a parallel bridge.
3. His insistance that the legislature give full study to the Reber Plan as a water conservation program.

Bigger Farms

While there were about 200,000 fewer farms in 1945 than in 1940, land in farms was about 88,000,000 acres greater in 1945, and harvested cropland was about 22 million acres greater in 1945.

A block of marble, cut from a bed near Placerville, is in the Washington National Monument in Washington, D. C.

Golden Gate Park in San Francisco is famous for its stands of rhododendrons, which bloom spectacularly every Spring.

Job Situation Dim For Vet Grads

The 35,000 veterans graduating from universities this summer are going to be up against a tough labor market.

Urban F. Stewart, federal veterans employment representative for California, said that by fall some 400,000 are expected to be unemployed in this state.

He told a four day training session of 54 county veterans services officers that only 10 per cent of the 35,000 grads had been placed in jobs.

The Tuzigoot National Monument in Arizona is a typical 110 room pueblo covering the summit of a terraced ridge.

All State Waters Open This Saturday

All California waters—except those closed by executive order—will be open to anglers when the State's second trout fishing season begins one hour before sunrise, Saturday, May 27, in lakes and streams of 18 northern and central counties.

The summer trout, whitefish, and salmon fishing season closes one hour after sunset, October 31, in all of California except the Colorado river area, where there is no closed season.

Fish and game wardens advised anglers to consult th list of stream closures contained in the official abstract of 1950 angling regulations. Copies are availbale without charge at Division of Fish and Game offices and license agencies.

Governor Warren On Bus Tour

Standing squarely on his record and greeting friends and supporters on street corners, highways and by-ways, Governor Earl Warren in a statewide bus tour enters the final days of his drive for re-election with hard hitting attack on his opponent's magic formulas and rainbow promises.

The governor pointed out that the choice is either "pay-as-you-go" or "promise-as-you-go" and pay later.

At each stop of his chartered bus, there is an informal and warm friendliness, and understanding of the man, an appreciation of his splendid record as chief executive of California.

Meetings for the most part are small and intimate gatherings at public plazas, at city hall parks, at cross-roads. Everywhere is found that earnest acceptance of a man of action who has made great achievements for the public good.

The governor is telling everyone of his record. He is telling them with great good nature and with solemn assurance that the things which have been accomplished are for the good of all. Everywhere he has the ready acceptance accorded a true friend. Newcomers to California — and they are coming here at a great rate each year—are greeting him warmly. Most of them never before met a governor of the state. Old acquaintances in every county wring his hand, cheer him on to the victory. Leading Democrats —long in the party—assure them that there will be a heavy vote for him at the primaries, perhaps a decisive vote on June 6.

MAN TO MAN

Father Thomas Regan and Peter discuss plans for the dedication of the new $1,250,000 Archbishop Hanna Center for Boys at Sonoma, Sunday, May 21st.

The thirteen-building architectural masterpiece covers 157 acres and is designed to provide one of the nation's most enlightened programs for the care of the homeless and neglected boy.

A large number of citizens from this county who contributed towards construction of the Center plan to attend the ceremonies. Archbishop John J. Mitty and Governor Earl Warren will be the speakers and Hollywood film stars are being invited to participate.

Vet Groups Back Draper

Peninsula war veterans have organized a "veterans' committee to elect Judge Draper" and heading body are two well known ex-servicemen, J. J. Madden of San Bruno and Charles Berryessa of San Mateo.

Madden is chairman of the United Veterans Coordination Committee of San Mateo county and past commander of San Bruno Post No. 407, American Legion, while Berryessa is past commander of San Mateo Post No. 82.

The Draper-for-Judge veterans' committee released the following statement today commenting on Superior Judge Murray Draper's candidacy for superior court:

"Judge Draper saw overseas service in the Southwest Pacific in the Navy during the last World War. At the end of hostilities he came out of the service as a lieutenant commander, wearing the commendation ribbon."

McDonald Gets Varied Support

P. R. Rorke, Burlingame merchant for 30 years, who is actively interested in Edward R. McDonald's campaign for re-election to the county board of supervisors, said today:

"In my opinion, McDonald is the best man for the job because he is a man of strong convictions. He never hedges and wears no man's yoke. You always know where he stands on a subject and he has the courage to fight for his convictions. We must keep him in office—he is part of the best board of supervisors San Mateo county has ever had."

Andrew Conway, member of the firm of Conway and Culligan, prominent San Mateo county home builders, pointed out the fact that McDonald has made an enviable record for himself, first as a successful druggist and later in his years of service to the community.

"As a member of the city council and then as mayor," Conway said, "he served Burlingame well. Since then, in his eight years as a member of the county board of supervisors, he has been untiring in his efforts to look after the best interests of all the people of San Mateo county. He devotes his full time to his job and I am convinced the board could not have a better man as one of its members."

State Demo Party Hopeful

The record registration for the primary elections June 6 is heartening evidence that the people of California are meeting the responsibilities of citizenship in ever-increasing numbers, state chairman Oliver J. Carter said today, adding that the Democratic party "welcomes the kind of decision at the polls which can be had in really decisive fashion only through the medium of a heavy vote."

"A big vote is in the best tradition of our Democratic system," Carter said. The Democratic leader released a summary of California election results dating over the past twenty years, showing that Democratic candidates have generally benefited from a heavy turnout on election day.

Carter pointed out that the Truman-Barkley victory of 1948 came with a vote of approximately 81 per cent of the registered voters, a figure well above the average of 74 per cent for the general elections in California since 1936, when the numerical superiority of registered Democrats over Republicans was established.

Ruth Kirste Support Growing

Intensive activity all over San Mateo county was reported today on behalf of the candidacy of Miss Ruth Kirste, who seeks to retain her office as county recorder at the June 6 election.

Miss Kirste's campaign committee announced that citizens of every section are working actively to win her election at the primary election in June.

Especially strong support, her workers said, is coming from thousands of women and women's organizations throughout the county in their effort to retain representation in the county's official family. The retirement of Miss Pansy Abbott, county school superintendent, at the end of her present term, will leave Miss Kirste as the only woman heading a major department of county government, it was pointed out.

Hempstead Long Time Resident

County Assessor O. B. Hempstead, who seeks to be retained in his present position by the voters at the June 6 election, has been a resident of San Mateo county for 32 years, according to Ralph McClinton, chairman of the Citizens Committee-supporting Hempstead's candidacy.

Hempstead, McClinton said, lived in South San Francisco for many years before moving to Burlingame. In both towns he engaged in the banking business. He became associated with the Assessor's office in 1945 and served in successive capacities as Personal Property Appraiser, Building Appraiser and Assistant Assessor. Upon the death of the former assessor, Hempstead was the unanimous choice of the present board of supervisors to take over the executive duties of that office.

RETAIN

SHERIFF

James J. McGRATH

Opponents Have to resort to MUD-SLINGING To Try to win the people's votes. Facts are tossed into the ash can. Now they have stooped to EMPLOYING CHILDREN in their Dirty Work. They are calling your sons "HOODLUMS." They say San Mateo County is the center of young "HOODLUMS." That is a bare faced lie if there ever was one. Don't be fooled by such snide tricks. Instead, vote for SHERIFF JAMES J. McGRATH, who stands on his Record, not false and misleading statements.

He is an experienced law enforcement officer.
He has built an efficient Sheriff's office.
He is respected by State Police Organizations.
He is a lifetime Peninsula Resident.

KEEP JIM ON THE JOB

We're Lucky He's on Our Side

By Ridgely Cummings

Listen World, if you can spare a moment, while I tell you how I feel about a few things.

Take J. Robert Oppenheimer for instance. He's the famed atomic scientist who has been accused of playing footsie with the Communists. A nice guy if I ever met one, though we met only casually and he wouldn't remember me.

I can't see Oppenheimer as an enemy of our country. He struck me as a remarkably gifted man, genuinely brilliant, who at the same time was modest and diffident, almost humble. When I write that he is brilliant that doesn't mean I am an expert in nuclear physics and base my judgment on prolonged study of his accomplishments.

Nowadays we tend to judge peoples' ability by their skill in using the tools of communication. I've listened to Oppenheimer talk, have seen his mind in action answering a barrage of questions, and that is the evidence for my statement.

The charge against J. Robert (I don't know why he parts his name on the right but he has a certain quality of reserve which works against calling him Bob on brief acquaintaince) was made before the old Tenney committee, now headed by State Senator Hugh Burns of Fresno.

LOSE PERSPECTIVE

Red-hunting tends to either car a man out or else make him a fanatic. Jack Tenney lost his sense of perspective under the tension and pressure and another chap, a very good friend of mine who holds a responsible position in a public organization where he has frequent clashes with Communists and fellow travellers, is reaching the same point. He is a sound man on most topics but he can't discuss international politics without growing beet-red, wild-eyed and blowing spittle all over his interlocutors.

That's too bad but I didn't mean to write about him. State Senator Burns seems to be bearing up pretty well at the start. It will be interesting to watch his development during the next year or so.

Oppenheimer denied the charges categorically.

He added that during the depression he "once knew many people in left-wing circles and belonged to several left-wing organizations. The government has known in detail of these matters since I first started work on the atomic bomb project."

Like many another keen observer, Oppenheimer had watched capable intellectuals cracking up during the depression because nobody wanted to employ them. He implies in the press release in which he denies Communist affiliation that this spectacle of the wastage of talent was what led him to take an interest in radical politics.

This wastage of talent is one of our great weaknesses. As I have written elsewhere (see No. 2 comprehension) the menace of Communism is not so much an external one with the Red Army poised to attack us as an internal threat that feeds on unemployment, anxiety and the curtailment of civil rights.

The pained reaction of the Un-American Activities Committee to Oppenheimer's denial is of course ridiculous. The committee thought the scientist should have kept quiet until he testified before them under oath. Since the charges were flung around the world by the wire associations, Oppenheimer's one chance of catchup with the accusation was by using the same source for his denial. If he had waited weeks to appear before the committee his reputation would have been ruined.

Once after hearing Oppenheimer talk at an off-record conference I remarked to a companion: "Thank goodness he's on our side!" I still feel thataway.

So much for J. Robert and the great atomic spy scare. His denial is good enough for me.

"ENEMY" LANDING PARTY—U. S. "assault" troops in "Exercise Portrex" communicate with landing craft by means of walkie-talkie while they struggle through the white sand of Puerto Rican beach.

TROUT FISHING FAIR

Trout fishing has been fair during the past week on Lake Tahoe in El Dorado county, reports the National Automobile club. Although few limits have been taken, nearly all boats have been coming in with two to three-pound fish.

LINEN FOR THE CAR

Of all the materials that you might find to clean the glass of the windshield and car windows, linen is rated the best by most car makers, according to the National Automobile club. It possesses the special property of removing dirt and grease most readily from the glass and yet leaving it free from lint. The older the piece of linen used, the better it will function.

ENTER TRAFFIC CAUTIOUSLY

Always use caution when entering the stream of traffic, warns the National Automobile club. When pulling out from a garage, private driveway, or side road, come to a complete stop, wait for an opening to come along, and make sure that these other drivers see what you're about to do. By doing so, you will help keep yourself safe.

Bocci Endorsed By Majority Of Township Lawyers

Over the weekend, Thomas L. Bocci Jr., candidate for justice of the peace, First Township, through his campaign manager, announced the overwhelming support of the attorneys of the First Township.

Out of a possible nineteen, Bocci was overwhelmingly endorsed by thirteen attorneys, either practicing or residing in the First Township.

They are: Attorney Amos Bactold, Attorney Tom Jenkins, Attorney William Dunbar, Attorney Joh Noonan, Attorney Thomas B. Gallen, Attorney John Filippi, Attorney John J. Fahey Jr.,, Attorney Frank Blum, Attorney Tom B. Markley, Attorney Carroll Brecher, Attorney Lelia Leep, Attorney Thomas Needham, Attorney R. L. Ariani.

Their endorsement was based on Mr. Bocci's experience and qualifications as an attorney, acquired over a period of seven years in the practice and study of the law. These attorneys feel that this office should be held by a younger man, particularly in view of the California law, which requires that the attorney holding this office need only practice law two years. And in endorsing Thomas Bocci, these attorneys are conforming to the practice of Governor Warren in appointing younger men to our judicial benches.

Rent Overcharges Refunded Tenants

A total of $25,488.22 in rent overcharges was refunded to San Francisco Defense-Rental Area tenants during April, William A. Bledsoe, area rent director, revealed today.

San Francisco landlords made the refunds after tenant complaints to the area office had been investigated and found to be valid. Of the total amount, $15,244.74 represented voluntary refunds, made by the landlords after compliance with area office representatives, William A. Bledsoe said.

Federal court judgments were handed down against 22 landlords, who refused to make voluntary restitution and were sued by the rent control agency. The judgments totalled $10,244.08 in refunds ordered to tenants, and $743.70 going to the U. S. government as a result of court decisions. Under the 1949 law, Bledsoe explained, the rent control agency is authorized to sue violating landlords for three times the overcharges occuring during the last year, if the tenant has not sued for treble damages during the first month after the violation was discovered.

749 tenant complaints were investigated by the agency during the month, according to Bledsoe, and 215 were dismissed as either no violation or non-actionable. 144 certificates of eviction were granted by the office during August, area rent director Bledsoe said, out of 237 applications received.

Most eviction certificates were applied for on the ground of owner occupancy, according to Bledsoe.

There are 14 miles of bridle paths in San Francisco's Golden Gate park.

Jack Anderson Answers Questions

Congressman Jack Z. Anderson, full of vigor and in the picture of health, returned from Washington last weekend to begin his campaign for reelection to the office which he has held since 1938 as representative of the 8th congressional district which embraces San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz and San Benito counties.

After 48 hours of campaigning, Anderson reported Sunday that the questions mainly asked of him are, in this order:

1. The efficiency and economy in government.
2. The government attitude toward enactment of proposals in the Hoover committee report.
3. The Hoover committee report as it relates to war veterans.
4. The postoffice department's reduction in mail delivery service.
5. The truth about the international situation.

Howard Magee Gives Background

That a judge should represent all the people impartially and should not be a lawyer's judge or be indebted to any specific group or faction and that he should owe no political favors for campaign support was the platform upon which Howard Magee announced his candidacy for superior judge.

Magees career has followed the typical American success story. He worked in lumber yards and at manual labor to put himself through San Francisco Law school. He later became a successful business man. He served in the United States army. He returned to the practice of law in San Mateo county and is now associated with John Shortridge in his own building in Redwood City.

Magee's career has followed the betterment activities as well as lodge, church and school affairs on the peninsula. He is past master of Park Lodge, F. &. A. M., is a member of the Redwood City Commuters club, the Exchange club, the Elks, Sequoia Yacht club, and of North Redwood Neighbors, Inc.

Magee won wide recognition in his fight against increased commute fares as chairman of the Peninsula Protective Association of commuters. He is also chairman of the Redwood City Charter Study committee.

Aside from demonstrated competence in the law, Magee declared his two primary aims in administering the judgeship will be to offer procedures that will reduce the long delays now existing in bringing cases to trial and a personal attention to juvenile problems.

With two sons in high school, Magee is particularly concerned with the juvenile situation and asserts that this important phase of community life should not be shunted off to subordinates or left to law enforcement agencies whose chief concern should be with crime instead of guidance and rehabilitation of erring youngsters.

Rentz States Platform

Fred J. Rentz, candidate for county recorder June 6, today stated his platform for election.

It is a well known rule that good administration is a MUST in any organization if that organization is to succeed. San Mateo county is no exception to this rule. Because of the many new problems now facing the county government, due mainly to its tremendous growth in both population and expenditures, it should have the best administrative talent possible. It is big business today—27 million dollars worth a year, and as such should be organized and operated along those lines in all its services.

BIOGRAPHY

1. 46 years old, married, a taxpayer and landowner in San Mateo county.

2. Public accountant—qualified by 2 state boards; those of California and Wisconsin.

3. Graduate of the University of Wisconsin School of Commerce. Thorough training in business administration and management.

4. Over 20 years of successful practice, on an administrative level, in accounting and business management in both public and private office.

5. 5½ years of county service as administrative assistant to the San Mateo county department of public health and welfare. Has a very good understanding of present day county problems.

6. Member of the board of directors of the Sequoia Red Cross chapter.

LOW MILEAGE

Unnecessarily rapid acceleration of your car can be one of the primary causes of low gasoline mileage, says the California State Automobile Association. Pumping the accelerator pedal after starting the engine also wastes fuel.

DON'T DAYDREAM

Don't daydream while driving, advises the National Automobile club. Should a child dart out from behind that parked car, a truck suddenly come lurching out from that diveway, or a reckless driver swing unexpectedly into your line of traffic, your pleasant daydream could very easily be turned into an unpleasant nightmare.

WHAT DO YOU SAY?

These Three Judges Say:

SUPERIOR JUDGE AYLETT R. COTTON:
"The township justice court is a vital and important unit of our judicial system. Judge Rudolph A. Rapsey has conducted the first township Justice's Court in a competent manner based on the true American system of humane justice and kindly consideration. It will be to the credit of the first township in this county to retain him as judge."

JUDGE HUGH F. MULLIN, of Second Township Justice Court:
"Seldom do I ever enter political issues outside of my district, but I feel I would be derelict as a jurist and as a citizen if I did not point out at this time that the fine ends of service and citizenship would best be served through the retention of Judge Rudolph Rapsey as Justice of the First Township Court."

JUDGE EDWARD J. RYAN, of Menlo Park City Court:
"Judge Rudolph A. Rapsey has brought the Justice Court of First Township to a high plane of judicial service, Justice in the highest meaning of the word is assured by his presence on the bench. His re-election will bespeak common sense voting by the good people of the district."

Chevrolet Expands Production Program

An expansion program to double the production of Powerglide automatic transmissions was announced here by T. H. Keating, general manager of Chevrolet.

The program, said Keating, will increase facilities in seven Chevrolet plants which contribute parts to the transmission. Manufacturing in Cleveland, Flint, Detroit, Saginaw, Bay City, Buffalo and Toledo will be affected.

"The decision to begin immediately on the project has been dictated by the tremendous retail demand for Powerglides," Keating explained. "Success of the automatic transmission in the hands of Chevrolet owners has created a rush of business that we did not anticipate when we introduced new model passenger cars in January. Our bank of unfilled orders necessitates an increase in production as soon as possible."

Bill Pappas Takes Over Management Of D. C. Theatre

Taking over the management of the Daly City Theatre this week is a veteran theatre man, Bill Pappas.

Bill will fill the position left by Dan Anderson who is now directing the affairs of the new Serra Theatre, Junipero Serra.

Experienced in the ways of the movie world, Bill comes to Daly City from the San Francisco Del Mar theatre. He has been manager there for the past several years.

"I can assure the people of Daly City that I will do everything in my power to bring them the best possible movies," Bill said today.

The congenial six footer extended an invitation to local residents to drop into his office when they come to the theatre.

"About the only way we have of knowing if our theatre is pleasing the audience is to hear from them," Bill noted.

Meanwhile, Anderson reports that in his new position of manager of the Serra Theatre he will continue to carry out his policy of bringing the residents of Daly City and Broadmoor the finest pictures possible.

Serra Mothers Club Welcomes 1950-51 Officers

Tuesday afternoon, in the auditorium of Serra high school, the Mothers' Auxiliary formally welcomed the incoming officers for the 1950-51 school year.

Officers include Mrs. Maurice McCormick of San Mateo, president; Mrs. Le Roy Gast of San Mateo, vice-president; Mrs. L. Martinelli of Daly City, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Daly of San Carlos, recording secretary, and Mrs. Earl Giguere of Burlingame, treasurer.

The Very Rev. Vincent I. Breen, school principal, presided over the simple, traditional induction ceremony for the new officers, following which he thanked Mrs. Herman Kruse of San Mateo, retiring president, for her loyal and tireless work on behalf of the auxiliary and the school. As a token of appreciation Mrs. Kruse was given a sick call set by the auxiliary. The incoming officers were presented with corsages of roses and gardenias.

During the preceeding business session congratulations and thanks were given Mrs. John J. Loretz of San Mateo for her recent successful handling of the elaborate programs used during the shwings of the Senior class play and to Mrs. L. M. Silva of San Carlos for the dozens of charming dolls personally dressed by her for the doll booth at the Serra Festival which is to be held this Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon in the school auditorium. In all, Mrs. Silva and her committee of mothers have outfitted 350 lovely dolls plus a bridal doll and her attendants.

Campers To Pay Fees For Grounds

Campers and picnickers will pay a fee again this year for use of facilities at six of the most heavily used campgrounds in national forests in California, it was announced here this week by M. M. Barnum, assistant regional forester in charge of recreation and land matters.

Campers will pay 50-cents a day, and picnickers will pay 25-cents a day, for a party of six adults or less, at the following campgrounds:

Pinecrest Campground at Strawberry Lake, Stanislaus National Forest; Hampshire Rocks Campground on U. S. 40 near Big Bend Ranger Station, Tahoe National Forest; El Dorado Count Campground at Lake Tahoe in El Dorado National Forest; Blue Jay Campground near the Arrowhead Ranger Station, both in the San Bernardino National Forest.

The fee experiment was started last year in an effort to spread Forest Service funds for maintnance of the 1100 forest campgrounds in California.

DESTROY ORGANIZED GAMBLING IN SAN MATEO COUNTY.

GUARANTEE AN EFFICIENT ADMINISTRATION WITH MYSELF AS AN ACTIVE SHERIFF.

ESTABLISH A REAL JUVENILE AID BUREAU AND STRENGTHEN CRIME PREVENTION FACILITIES.

CREATE A PRODUCTIVE COUNTY JAIL FARM.

Note the First Pledge — But, in an attempt to nullify it, sinister influences have whispered around that his campaign has been sponsored by Gambling Interests. This is a cowardly and deliberate falsification, and to stamp it out, the Spillers campaign committee has opened its books to show exactly where every contribution has come from. Moreover, Spillers charged that he will sue for slander, and prosecute to the limit those responsible for the dastardly allegation.

Meanwhile, Bob Spillers, as an all-American athlete, is receiving the endorsement of many youths, too young to vote, yet recognizing him as a leader they can look up to. Don't forget, for years he has been sponsoring juvenile athletic teams.

Again, many women have organized groups for telephone and house-to-house canvasses to obtain votes for Bob Spillers.

Remember, Spillers is an honest and reliable Redwood City councilman Now, and will carry on in that manner if
